Unto our most treasured Barony, does Uldin, by the grace of Kings Baron of V'tavia, and Sung, his beloved Baroness, do send our greetings and affection.

We hope everyone has enjoyed the winter break and that you have found time to renew your spirit while being with your family and friends during this festive time of year.

This is an excellent time of year to work on projects, mend arrows, repair armor, etc. etc. The Barony has acquired enough canvas to make two new shade-flys to help provide shelter from the heat at events. Keep an eye on the mailing lists and Facebook group for when we might be gathering to work on them!

We are pleased to let you know that Lady Thorlein Knochenhauer is our new Knight's Marshal, having taken over the office in Master Kagemoto's stead. Both Lady Catlin Marie de Moretaine and Lady Margaret MacKenzie have received the blessing of their Kingdom Superiors to extend their time in office as Seneschal and Exchequer for one year, respectively.

TRH Donngal and Catalina's Coronation is less than two weeks away, and we are very excited to be holding this event at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church's Ville in Andover! The venue is breathtaking, and we do sincerely hope that all of you are able to make it out for the event. Thank you to everyone who has offered up crash space for members both in and out of Kingdom, we are overjoyed to know that so many of our friends have found welcome respite within the burning lands. Thank you to everyone who has volunteered to help out with the event, from stewarding, to making site tokens and largess, to toiling in the kitchen, and keeping watch at Gate.

If you have not already done so please submit award recommendations for the upcoming events. There are many good folks in this Barony and Kingdom who are worthy of recognition. Please send award recommendations to Their Majesties so that they may know and have time to make plans. Do it now!

Kingdom Award Recommendation Form - <http://op.calontir.org/award.php>

Kingdom Order of Precedence - <http://op.calontir.org/>

We know that it is a bit early yet, but we encourage everyone who is able to muster for Gulf Wars this year. We believe a size-able contingent of members are already planning to make the trek, and wish to remind everyone that car pooling is a great way to make the venture both more fun and affordable. Don't forget to sign the muster list online so that our King and Queen know who are attending with Them.

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Greetings Vatavia!
We look forward to seeing everyone at Coronation!

Until then, the Barony needs a new Social Media deputy. If you are interested in the position, please send a letter of intent to myself, their Excellencies, and the Kingdom Social Media officer.

We are looking for bids for Crown tournament in 2020, on April 11th. We also would like to see demo coordinators for Renfaire in April. If you have any interest in either, please let us know. If you need help, we have lots of experienced people who can step in to guide you through the process.

Yours in Service

Lady Catlin Marie du Moretaine
Seneschal

FROM THE CASTELLAN

Greetings unto the populace of Vatavia,

We are back inside the Exploration Place for fighter practice! This means we have more public moving through and around us so please bring something out and get people talking. Coronation is here soon so if you know anyone who has been interested in seeing what we are all about, let them know! The Barony has some fantastic Gold Key garb that can get anyone who wants to come garbed up so they can have some fun with us.

If you see any new faces around at practice, meetings, or populace be sure to introduce yourself and welcome them to the Barony.

In service,
Lord OyríkR Randulfsson CT

FROM THE CALTROP PURSIVANT

Greetings good gentles all, and may this cold season find your hearts warmed by good company.

Your heralds want to hear from you! Do you have questions about things heraldic? Would you like help picking a name? Do you need something yelled really, REALLY loud? All of these are things we can help with!

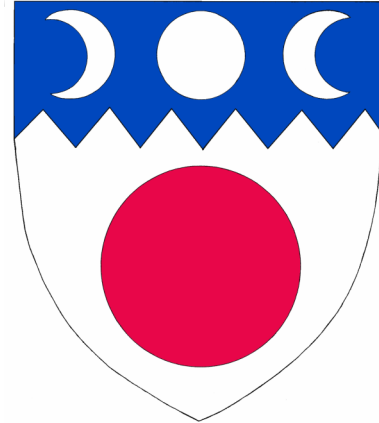

Coronation is coming! While site rules limit how we can hang banners, it would be amazing to display as many as possible! Loud voice may also be needed, so consider helping if you can.

Oyez, Oyez, Populace of Vatavia,

We are pleased to announced the registration in September of two Vatavia proposals.

FROM THE EXCHEQUER

Good Day to all.

Here is where The Barony sits on available monies at the end of 4th quarter of 2018. We currently have a $16,547.24 in the bank. We have not yet received the December bank statement as of the writing of this message to you all, so the balance is according to the register and the November bank statement. According to the ledger we do have some pending checks to clear totalling $2,180. If you have any questions please feel free to message me through the Baronial website email exchequer@baronyofvatavia.org.

YIS

Lady Margaret MacKenzie

FROM THE ARCHER MARSHAL

As we move thru the winter months looking forward to a new and exciting upcoming season. I hope everyone can make it to all the archery events that they can and show a strong showing for Vatavia. See you all on the line in the spring.

Konrad von Roth

Archery Marshall, Barony of Vatavia

FROM THE KNIGHT MARSHAL

Greeting Fair Vatavians,

I am deeply honored to announce I will be stepping up to the post of Knight Marshal. You all made me feel so welcome and that Vatavia was my home away from home, and I felt it was time to make it my true home. I'd like anyone and everyone to feel free to talk to me about any suggestions they'd have about practices. If there's something you'd like to see us try to offer please let me know. You can talk to me at practices. If you do not want to chat at practice you can reach me on Facebook, by email, or by phone (no calls before 3pm or after 9pm please).

I plan on keeping practice days and times the same. We will continue at the Exploration place until the middle of March. I hope the weather cooperates and we can move outside to OJ Watson Park following that. I will try to keep cancelations to a minimum but we do live in Calontir so our weather can be a little unpredictable. With that being said I will do my best to give at the least 24 hours' notice of any cancelations.

I also would like to extend invitations to have any and all Arts & Sciences people come out and join us and look forward to seeing Cut and Thrust at our indoor and outdoor site and Archery once the weather is nice enough for all of us to move outside.

I look forward to being of service to the Barony and the fighters of this group and look forward to seeing everyone at practice!

Lady Thorlein Knochenhauer

FROM THE ARTS AND SCIENCES MINISTER

The cold weather has driven artisans and fighters alike indoors to work on their Arts and Sciences projects! A small sampling of projects from the populace:

William has been busy working on Royal Pound dies for the next reign.

Lawrence and Genevieve have been contributing generously to largess with bags, cups, and chalices.

Margaret has been weaving.

Sorcha completed a lovely cat illumination for the Dragonflyer.

Johann taught songs at Vertigo.

A knitting class was also held.

Please contact me with class ideas—especially if you've never taught before! You have a gentle audience and nothing to fear.

In service,

Eyfríðr Geirsdóttir

FROM THE DEMO COORDINATOR

Joyous Holiday Greetings Vatavia,

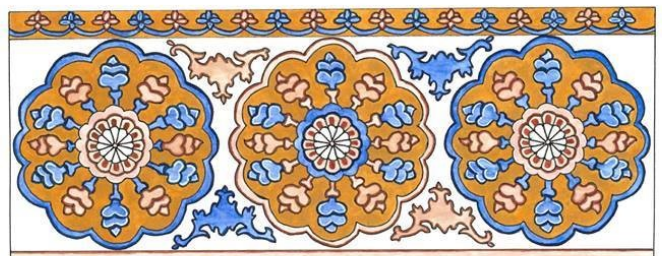

The old year has passed and the new begun. And with it the New Year brings opportunities to share what we do and study with others.

Dates have been finalized for the first half of the year with Exploration Place. Indoor fighter practice will be held there until mid-March. Informally we have opportunities during the indoor fighter practice at the Water Way Hall on Sundays to share with their guests what we do. Formally we will be presenting in the Grand Hall about espionage and related facets of Middle Ages history on January 27th. Then again on April 7th, the subject will be Middle Ages Trivia.

Then the end of April is once again the Spring Great Plains Renaissance Festival in Sedgwick County Park.

There will be no populace meeting November 21st the day before Thanksgiving nor December 26th the day after Christmas.

There are plans to schedule a winter class on knitting for arts and sciences. December 12th there will be a class presented by Mistress Genèvieve on silk banner making. Interested members should have a design or idea ready. Contact Ly. Eyfríðr or Mistress Genèvieve if you are interested, so that materials needed can be planned and ordered. The construction of the Baronial tent will be schedule once Coronation is over.

One Vatavia heraldic proposal has been forwarded for registration. A consultation night will be held November 14th. Loud and friendly people are encouraged to consider doing voice heraldry. Changes needed on the website were noted. All minutes the Web Minister has received have been posted. The Chronicler put out an invitation for articles and artwork for the next Dragonflyre to be published on or before January 15, 2019.

Vatavia's rotation for Spring Crown is in 2020. Bids for this event will need to be in by April. Award recommendations are needed for both Baronial and Kingdom awards.

Once it is published in the Dragonflyre, applications will be open for the new office position for Social Media. This new office is a warranted position requiring membership and a social media account.

There being no other business the meeting adjourned.

It's the Little Things

By HL Thomas Bacon

A recent attendance to a small event allowed reliving the old SCA. There is nothing wrong, per se, with big events, but they lack the intimacy and relaxed nature that was so attractive of the SCA. They present an opportunity to get away from the stresses of modern life. And it is these little things that make the Society enjoyable.

A relaxed schedule. Things happen when those interested can assemble. And if the planned activity is not suitable or of interest, it can be changed to meet the interests and abilities of those assembled. And things can take as long as need be, and interest is sustained. For there is no need to rush to finish an activity so that the next may start. And if an unplanned activity is desired, it could be fitted in.

An opportunity to try new things. Competitions are more like friendly rivalry where the outcome is of small importance. The pressure to succeed is internal and the struggle to accomplish the task is tolerated. Critiques are amicable and advice is constructive. Instruction is more personal, nor constrained into one hour blocks. Try out new feast recipes. To sing new songs.

Time to enjoy the companionship of those attending. Where acquaintances are not lost in the crowd, and new friends can be met. Where there is little need to break off conversations to attend to some duty or activity. To sit and converse, to engage, laugh, and to bond with each other.

Yes these little events lack the pomp of bigger events, the sites more mundane, the activities less diverse. And those things certainly add to the excitement of the Society. But those are not the things that hold onto people for the long term. It is the friendships formed, the sense of family established that keep the veterans of this game coming back. And those things are to be found in the small events.

A Mid Winter Knight's Dream

Al'Lady Alis Kerwan of Galway

A peaceful breeze rustles through the trees
as friends and family-by-choice gather near.

The long winding path leads the way to a land of yesteryear,
a land where Lords & Ladies, Squires & Maidens, Lads & Lasses,
join together to share tales of travels near and far.

Artisans work at their craft or trade,
Their handiwork commemorates their native lands or heritage.
The herald harkens one and all,
to take their place to fight or cheer.

Armor is donned, the field is set,
for honorable combat to commence.

A tournament with valiant flair,
makes today a grand event.

This beautiful land, of grandeur estate,
where hills meet shore and trees grow thick, is home for a time to:

Vikings

Mongols

Englishmen

Scotts

Irish

Celts

Welsh

Italians

In this land, for this time,
all differences begin to align.

The festive spirit sweeps through the air,
as tasty morsels are set to share.

Handcrafted treasures are placed with care,
in common ground for all to share.

Passers by cast their vote,
for art & science specimens extraordinaire.

A feast, they say, is set for all,
the hog is smoked, roots roasted,
And now it's time for a grand ole toast.

To one, to all, from North & South,
we're gathered round, the table's set.
For on this night, a mid winter night,
dreams are alive...dreams that belong to young & old, meek &
bold, friend & foe.

As lights grow, the dreams align,
where festive hearts sit side by side
to drink and dine before they dance.

A sweet delight, songs and stories,
compliment the savory meal.

Our thanks we give, to the Shire: Theobald College,
for this fine event

Today...

Tonight...

A Pause from life.
