from the Seneschal

Greetings from the Phantom Seneschal:

Yes, it is true, I do exist (on a higher level). By the time you read this my quarterly report will have been sent in. Two things it stressed was the number of V'tavians traveling and attendance at the Keep. Both are on an upswing. I would like to remind everyone, that the Keep is open almost every night, check the calendar elsewhere in this issue for times and activities. Also a general reminder about the Keep, this is your place but we cannot make ends meet with the donations that are being given. If you can't afford to donate money, then give some of your time. Work on Baronial projects or whatever to help out.

The Keep needs you!!!

In Service to V'tavia,

Lord David the Silent

From the Pursuivant

Greetings:

For all those who have had a name and/or device returned from kingdom--I have received no word from Lord Andreas as yet. Due to the change in responsalibilities in the kingdom Herald's office (see current News), I do not know when to expect them back. I will call each of you as I find something out.

I will generally be available for help on names and devices on Sunday afternoons. For any other times, please call me to work out a time.

In Service,

Geithlenn nic Ruardhui

From the Chateleine

Greetings from Audine the Audacious:

I'm the Barony's new Chateleine. I will be trying to help new people with the aid of the populace. If you have loaner garb or material to make loaner garb out of please let me know or bring it to the keep. But let me know so that it's not just sitting out there. If you have any further questions, do not hesitate to contact me.

In service to V'tavia,

Audine the Audacious
529-2281

From the Minister of Science

Greetings:

There sure are a lot of new officers lately and I am one of them. I am now the Minister of Sciences. I am hoping to hold some workshops in Calligraphy and Illuminations with the assistance of the Minister of Arts. Also, those who are interested in brewing, get in contact with me because I would also like to have a brewing workshop and discussion.

There are several things I hope to accomplish many things in the days to come, so please if you have any suggestions, do not hesitate to let me know.

In Service to V'tavia,

Lord Moriagh Teige
O'Flaithheartiagh

From the Knight-Marshal

Greetings:

In opening, I would like to congratulate all those fighters who have received new authorizations. Also on this point, we are trying to work up an authorization day where in one day, V'tavians may pick up authorizations that they need. All fighters interested, contact me to see if it is feasible to have such a day. It is my hope to have all V'tavian fighters fully authorized and bring them back to the level of fighting that V'tavia is known and fyd for. And for this, I need the help and participation of all fighters of V'tavia.

In Service to V'tavia
and Galontir,

Lord Torin Caracn, Esq.

From the Chronicler

Greetings:

This is something new for me to do as I am the new chronicler. I'm not sure how it's going to go but with your help and assistance and patience, it should turn out real good. I hope to be able to give you several informative articles each month but in order to do that I'll need a lot of the articles to come from you.

If you have any articles or would like to help in any way, please feel free to call or talk to me.

"Just What the Heck Are You, Anyway?"

P.R. Speech 101

by Aelfric Frithar iksson

Do you have a hard time explaining to friends and other strangers just what it is you are doing wearing those wierd clothes? Well, here is an elaborated version of an S.C.A. classic to help: the basic, "Just What The Heck Are You, Anyway?" P.R. Speech 101.

We are the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., an international, non-profit, educational organization, with no religious or political affiliations, dedicated to the recreational re-creation of the Middle Ages by means of the educational technique known as "role playing." Each individual in the organization assumes the role of a non-historical person who might have lived during the Middle Ages, doing so without infringing on copyright laws, or using religious, mythological or fantasy-based characters as a groundwork. Each person chooses a chronological and geographical frame, and proceeds to research customs, manners, habits, ethics, dress, eating habits and many other factors from his time and place to "flesh out" the characteristics of his "persona" from the past. The research about this "persona" may be as complex or as simple as the individual chooses. Then, after having constructed their "persona," members are encouraged to "live" their roles at S.C.A. events. All "persona" are assumed to be of gentle birth, and therefore are allowed the title "Milord," or "Milady." All other titles (lord, lady, baron, count, master, etc.) must be earned within the framework of the S.C.A.

The time frame of the organization covers a thousand years, from 650 A.D. to 1650 A.D., and geographically includes all parts of the world known to western Europe in that time frame. While the emphasis is primarily European, many persons have chosen an Oriental, Arabic, or even a Central American Indian "persona."

The most spectacular aspect of our re-creation is simulated medieval combat. The armor used is real, functional armor, the weapons are made of rattan and padding, weighted and balanced to approximate actual weaponry. No aspect of our combat is staged or coreographed. It is as serious a sport as any amateur athletic competition. Our safety standards are strict, as this can be a dangerous pasttime, one that should not be practiced without trained supervision.

Less spectacular, but even more awesome in terms of research and beauty, are the arts and various sciences practiced in the S.C.A. In general, if it was done in the Middle Ages, and is of non-lethal nature, (NO plaques or inquisitions, please) someone in the S.C.A. probably recreates it. From armor making to weaving, calligraphy and illumination to brewing, leatherworking to heraldry, it's all done in our organization! The exceptions to this are activities involving witchcraft, druidism, or magic (other than simple prestidigitation). The Society does not allow the practice of any religious activity at S.C.A. functions, but it makes no attempt to dictate beliefs to members outside the context of the organization. Within the Society, one is encouraged to behave courteously, and with honor; after all, we are all of gentle birth. Chivalry and honor are the touchstones of inter-personal relationships in the S.C.A., and our moral objective, as far as we may be said to have one, is to encourage the growth of such out-moded concepts as honor, honesty, courtesy and chivalry among our members.

It is my personal belief that if all people practiced the toleration, courtesy and honor exhibited by most S.C.A. members, and lived as chivalrously as we are encouraged to do, our world would be an easier place in which to live, and a less dangerous one.

Announcements

There are several new officers this month who need to be congratulated on their taking of office. They are for the Minister of Arts--Ly, Maria de la Rosa, Minister of Sciences--Ld. Moriagh Teige O'Flaithbheartiagh, Chateleine--Ly, Audine the Audacious, and Chronicler--Gabriella La Fiorentina.. Vivat!

And on this note, next officers meeting is Monday, April 20 at 7:30 p.m. At this time all bids for Valor must be in.

As you can see by the calendar, Friday nights are for the most part open to any activities that may be suggested. Let's show some baronial support and start using it as a night to work on projects for such things as Renn-Faire and other money making events.

There was a phone call this week from the organizers of the Farm and Art Market asking if we would be interested in having a booth to sell our wares and be willing to put on demonstrations of fighting and dancing. It sounds like it would be a good deal for the group and a good money making project. We could do it every Saturday morning that there isn't an event, or even those staying in town could still attend. If interested, contact David the Silent 522-1658.

It was brought up in the last officers meeting that there needs to be a Keep Cleaning Day once a month. If you have any suggestions or would like to volunteer, contact me at 267-6236.

The Baronage is looking for people willing to make Baronial regalia. Things needed are thrones and a rug similar to the Calontir rug. If interested, contact Her Royal Majesty, Mamma.

Also a vote of thanks goes to those who participated in the Price Elementary Carnival Demo. They are Lady Katherine Helena, Lady Dana La Tona, Harold Isenross, Ceithlenn nic Ruadhui and her children, Corwin Mac Dougall, Lady Audine the Audacious, Lady Tuia Kynark of Illyricum, and Lord Aelfric Frithariksson.. Vivat!

Coronation

A Chronicle by Gabriella

La Fiorentina

On the fourteenth of March in the twenty-first year of the Society, a great number of people gathered to crown the new King and Queen. During the morning and most of the afternoon, a tourney was held with many brave and courageous fighters going against each other. The tourney came to an end around three in the afternoon which gave everyone time to change to court garb as court was to begin at five.

The sanctuary where court was held was beautiful to behold and seemed to fit with the mood of the ceremony that was about to begin: Their Majesties, Gabriel and Hywela came in and held their last court. They awarded two Award of Arms, one to Christopher Amber and the other to Aelfric Drumondor. They also awarded a Trillium to Baron Charles Stewart O'Connor and a Taurus to Esperanza de la Corona. The award that was best received by the populace was the Court Barontcy awarded to Pavel Josovich. Queen Hywela also awarded the Queen's Endorsement of Distinction to Charles De Renault for Martial Prowess, Tedrick Von Wolfshatten for Courtly Graces, and Huginn Hrothgarsfon for Pursuing the Ideals of the Society.

There then followed the disbanding of their retinue and the calling of the Chivalry of Calontir to guard the throne and crown until an heir can be found. After a short pause, William V'tavia approaches to claim the throne and crown by right of arms. They let him pass whereupon he crowns himself and then called forth his queen, Mamma and crowned her. They designated their retinue, announced that Lord Nathan Adelar would become a knight at War of the Cookies, and made Gabriel and Hywela Earl and Countess. Court was then closed.

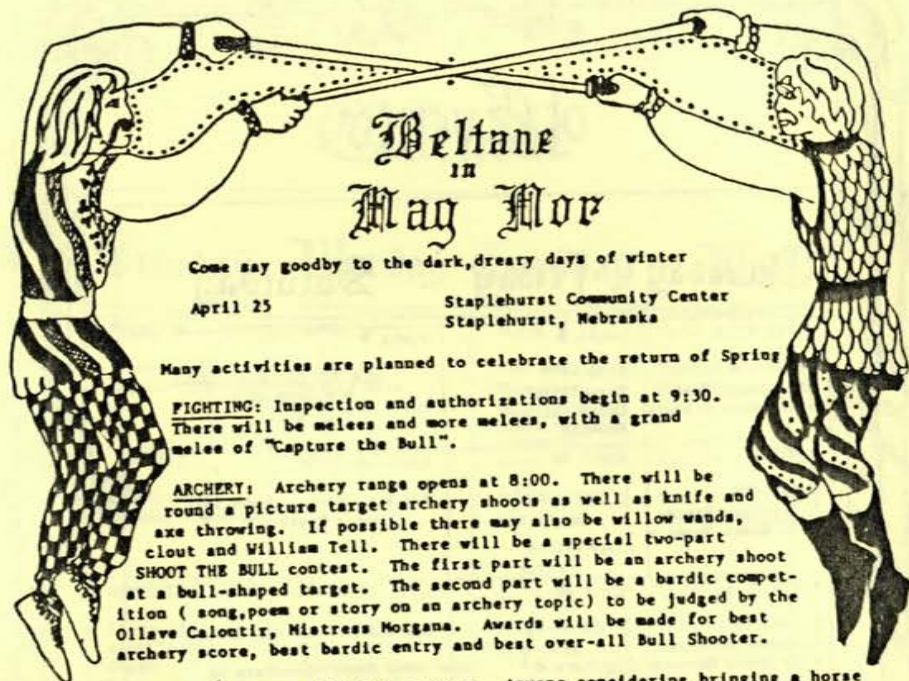

The feast began approximately one half hour later and was deliciously prepared. Lady Phillipa Lloyd de Tarifa was made an apprentice to Her Majesty, Mamma, in the study of Mideastern Dance. The V'tavian Dance Troupe also performed and were well received. The feast was finished by around nine in the evening and people started dispersing, gathering things together in preparation for calling it a day and moving on to a post revel that they knew of. All together it was an enjoyable day.

The WAR for the COOKIES!

Saturday, April 18, A.S. XXI (1987)

IT'S WAR!!! What started out as a small tournament in the Barony of Forgotten Sea, has escalated into the rebellion of the Canton of Crescent Moon! Last July, the Canton had been making numerous rumbling noises of independence. Lord Davro, Baron of Forgotten Sea, in an effort to defuse this talk, tripled the taxes of the populace of the Canton from one to THREE COOKIES PER HEAD! In an effort to appease the hungry cookie baron, Earl Sir Edward Cire of Greymoor, whose squire, Lord Chrystofer Kensor, is seneschal of the Canton, sent a gift from his county coffers of over 900 cookies to pay, not only the tax for the Canton, but the tax for the entire Barony as well. To see that the Canton of his vassal was no longer threatened, Earl Sir Cire also sent a detachment of his own county troops to support the Canton's militia. After accepting the Earl's gift, Lord Davro, in the spirit of the holiday season sent one third of the cookies to the Canton via Lord Chrystofer. Lord Chrystofer apparently returned to the Canton and distributed the cookies only to the members of the rebellion. Upon hearing of this, Lord Davro demanded an end to this insubordination. He demanded that the Canton repay him ALL 900 COOKIES, as punishment of their actions, and that the county troops of Greymoor were to leave the Canton immediately! At the January moot, Lord Chrystofer defied the Baron to the last cookie! At this Lord Davro marked that it would be necessary to purify the Canton with fire and steel, and that he would march on the Canton to seek out and destroy the criminal element this spring!

It is estimated (and a very good estimate at that!) that Lord Davro, and the armies of Forgotten Sea will reach the perimeter of the Canton on Saturday, April 18th. The site of the war will be the Campfire Girl Scouts Day Camp at Lake Shawnee, in South East Topeka (see map). The site is dry. We will serve a three course feast in the evening with a limit to the first 125 paid reservations. The war is being held in conjunction with Forgotten Sea's April Moot. This is a camping event. We have lots of space for tents and day pavilions. We also have four cabins (each cabin sleeps 16 people and has a fireplace) with bunks for rent. The cabin spaces are reserved on a first come basis (see elsewhere in this flyer for fees).

As Lord Davro marches to the Canton he will be met by archers, fighters and (oh, no. Not that; Not the...) artisans who will combat the baron and his forces. There will be seven war points:

- ARCHERY—20, 30, and 40 yard shoot at silhouetted targets (one war point)
- ARTS & SCIENCES—Best of 4 of 7 competitions in these categories: Arts—Embroidery, Calligraphy and Illumination, and Costuming (including accessories); Sciences—Leatherwork, Brewing, and Metalwork (including armor and weapons); and the tie-breaker: BEST COOKIE! (one war point)
- FIGHTING—Standard field battle (one war point)
 - Broken Terrain Battle—Capture the flag type battle with resurrections. Tied at 30 minutes, the winner will be the best 2 of 3 points (one point per banner, and one point for the most kills). (one war point)
 - Causeway—Similar to bridge battle, but if you fall off, you go to the end of the line. (one war point)
 - Barrier—Forgotten Sea and her allies on a simulated siege platform will attack the simulated outerwalls of the keep. (one war point)
 - Champions Battle—Best 10 (?) fighters picked by the commanders of each side in a field battle. (one war point)

The winner of the war will be the winner of at least four of the seven war points. Pick up releases and non-war point archery will occur as time permits. Authorizations will take place in the morning with sword and shield taking precedence.

The site opens at 5:00 pm Friday. A schedule of the days events will be sent to local seneschals. The troll booth is at the site.

THE SITE IS DRY! (officially) If you have to have alcohol on site, PLEASE keep it out of sight and in a tankard or such. We like our site; it's our only one we can afford. Please help us keep it. Take your empties with you.

FEES—The site fee is $2.00. The feast fee is $7.00 before April 1st, $9.00 thereafter. Subtract one dollar from feast fee if you send proof of national membership. There is no fee for camping, however, if you wish to reserve a bunk in a cabin, the fee is $2.00 per person, per night (there is a limit of 48 cabin spaces). Make all checks payable to "S.C.A.—Crescent Moon".

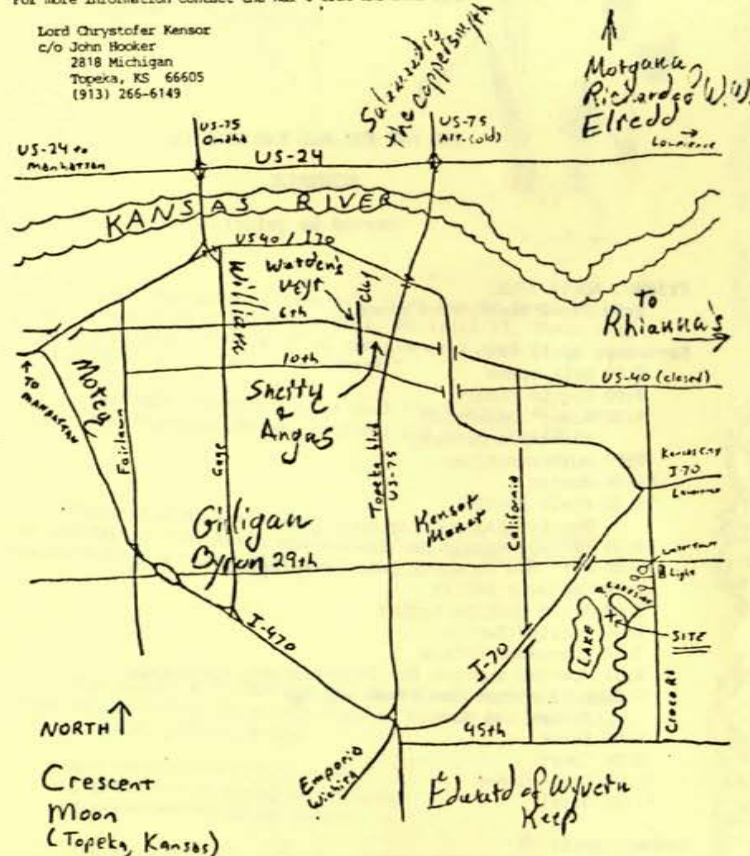

Send all reservations to our Exchequer: Our Feast-o-crat is:

For more information contact the War-o-crat and head of rebel forces (seneschal too!)

Lord Chrystofer Kensor
c/o John Hooker
2818 Michigan
Topeka, KS 66605
(913) 266-6149

CORRECTION: It was listed that the number of spaces for rent for those who wanted cabin space was four cabins with 16 bunks each (or 64 bunks for rent). Baron Davro has reserved one cabin for the people of Forgotten Sea (or who ever he wants to put in it). We have reserved one cabin for our people and/or the troll booth. This brings the number of cabin spaces for rent down to 32 on a first come first serve basis. Remember that the event is in April, in Kansas, and who knows how the weather will be (these cabins have fireplaces). If you wish a bunk in a cabin, the cost is two dollars per bunk/person per night; make your reservation now! Note that if you are tenting, there is no charge for camping.

In Spring, a Young Man's Fancy Turns To...

Just what does it turn to? Some say to love. Some say to war(Cookie War???) . Well, on April 12, there will be a mind event to see if we can discover what it is that it does turn to. Any volunteers???

The Knight-Marshall says that the tourney will be what the fighters choose. Anybody got any ideas???

There will be activities planned for the children of the Barony both large and small. Who knows, mayhap there will be a visit from the Easter Bunny..

The Barony will furnish the meat (Beef Brisket cooked over coals to give it a nice roasted taste) and Rice Pilaf. The Populace needs to bring:

A-IBring Breads.
J-RBring Vegetables.
S-ZBring Desert.

The Site Fee will be $2.50. There will be Tea and Such for wetting the palate. Don't forget your feast gear.
