dragonflyre tober a SXXII

ime Value Do Not Delay

Lable of Contents

Who's Who in Y'tavia.....7 Decadence III......14 Questionnare for Rush....... Outland Phun......20 Orc Wars......22 A Celtio Quest24 A V'tavian Wallowsen Celebration ... 25 Hallowe'en in Longridge26 All Hallow's Eve at Elkshire,.....27 Crown Tourney......29 Scribe's Symposius......30 Officers Phone Numbers......34

This is the Dragonflyre, published by and for the members of the Barony of V'tavia of the Society of Greative Anachronism, Inc. It is not a publication of the Society of Creative Anachronism, Inc., and does not delineate SCA policy. It is available from the Circulation Manager, c/o David Moreno, 205 N. Oliver, Wichita, Kansas 67206. Annual subscriptions are $7.50, handdelivered, or $10.00, mailed first class to you. The deadline is listed in the Calendar of Eventa.

CRRCNICLER--Cabriella la Fiorentina Beckie Barter R. R. #1 Box 9E Benton, Kansas 67017

From the Baronage

Unto the Citisens and Populace of V'tavia,

We were very pleased to see the turn out of Y'tavians at the Coronation of Their Majesties, Valens and Susannah. We hope that everyone had as good a time as we did.

There are many meetings in the month of October. Several are trial interest groups. If you have an interest in a group/ meeting, but are unable to attend, FLEASS, let the person(m) in charge know this, no we can get a feel for the level of interest. If insufficient interest is shown, meetings will cancelled to allow space on our active calendar. If you have other suggestions for meetings, bring it up at the populace meeting, or let us know.

We have not received any recommendations for awards from people since Valor. If you believe screens is deserving of a Baronial award, let us know. Forms are available.

Remember that the Parchy is only as good and strong as each of us make it. Take an interest and be a part of the Drammi

Your Baronage.

Tedrick and Aldean

Illinister of Deiences

First, to all the people who really worked hard on the feast at Valor, I must thank you all for your support to produce an excellent feast. (You really did an excellent job, thank you.)

Valor knives and coronets looked outstanding. I must also commend Stephen and Dave of Firefall, with the assistance of Robert of the Woodlands on the Valor token etchings for the feast (they all looked very nice). Several pieces of armor got repaired ani/or replaced.

Coronation tokens were also made in the aplender of the Royal occasion, and there wer four entries in the brewing competition from Y'tavia.

In Service to the Dream,

Ld. Moriagh Teige O'Flaithbheartiagh

From the Senescal

Many thanks to all that worked so hard at Valor. The event was a smashing success, and I hope you enjoyed it as much as the rest of Calontir did. I wish I could say, "Good job, take a rest", but I can't. Crown is just around the corner! This is the time all vitavia munt pull together and show the rest of the known world just what this group is made of.

I see a lot of new blood in the Barony, people with energy, enthusiasm, and new ideas. It can be infectious, and many of the "old timers" are finding they once again have energy. A new Baronage, new people. Just the thing to light the fire underneath a group. I just want to explain to the newcomers is that there is room for everyone in the Barony. We can't have too many dancers, calligraphers, and fighters. Find what you want to do, and we will do our best to let you. We have a long way to go in this Barony, and with the talent we have assembled, I see no reason why we can't accomplish wonderful things!

Thanks to everyone helping with the children problems at the keep. The kids are a lot safer now and I am breathing easier. I'm sorry I was so harsh in my last letter, but it needed to be delt with. It is one of the parts of this job I don't like.

The last order of business is to explain the NSC (Neat Stuff Committee). Much of our Baronial equipment is in disrepair. We need to rebuild what we have and make even more things. This is the one way our group can "show off" to the Kingdom, the Known World, and the mundane world. If you wish to use your talents to better your Kingdom and Barony, talk to me. I am the organizer of the NSC. My job is to try to devide up the work among the populace according to talent. If you like to do this kind of thing, or want to learn, I want to hear from you. Let's all band together to make this thing work.

We did make some money at Valor, but our costs are still quite high. Please continue donations, and help in any way possible to keep the Barony solvent.

Congatulations to all those who received AOAs at Valor. Ld. Gawayne, Ly. Briallin, Ld. Tristan, and Ly. Gabriella, we are all we are all proud of you. Well deserved.

The investing of the new Baronage was a joyfull and tearfull event for me. The memories flooded my mind of the great things our group has done under the guidance of William and Mammara, and it saddened me. But also there was the joy and the hope of the future with the very able leadership of Tedrick and Aideen. Snift. Oh well, we all know I am just a sentimental slob. Long life, Tedrick and Aideen. A sentiment from another Baron I knew and loved (William Coer deBouf):

Dum Vivimas, Vivamas! (While we live, let us LIVE!)

NEAT STUFF COMMITTEE

Things it has been proposed for the populace of the Barony to build or make for the Barony.

If you are interested if making any of these things, please contact the Seneschal (Zevak).

List table Pavillion Baronial Tabards Baronial Thrones Table Linen for Baronage Royal Banner Baronial War Banner Baronial & Royal Feast Gear Sanctum Rug Baronial Coronets Book of Ceremonys Seneschal's Cape Badges for Officers Baron's War Tabard Champion's and Luchisnic's Tabard Baronial Coronet for Baron's Fighting Helm Herald's Tabards Persuivant's Tabard Baronial Tiki Torches Table Settings Period Children's Toys

Ideas Have also been put forward for the following: Setting up a Baronial encampment at camping events, with Tiki torches, tables and chairs for the enjoyment of the populace.

Fixing up the display case the Smithy donated to the Barony. Deciding what kinds of things to put within, and making them.

Making some large cloth "Ordinarys" or Banners to put in the building and also to pretty up the SCA area at RenFair.

Anyone with passed arms is welcome to make a Banner to put up out at the keep on a permanent basis.

Thank you so very much for your time and attention. As I said before, if you are interested in doing anything above or anything else, please talk to me.

In Sevice,

Z

Dursuivant

Greetings, Good Gentiles;

I would like to announce an heraldic competition. I would like to submit devices for the following: 1) the Radge of V'tavia, 2) Straz, 3) the Star of V'tavia. How about the populace submitting devices to me to be judged by myself, the Baronage and those who would wear them. For example, the Straz would have a voice in deciding between submissions. Try to make them simple, as they will be easier to make. Remember, all heraldic rules must apply. Prizes? Something delicious to quench your throat on cold winter nights to keep you proof against the cold. Also, be careful in the use of the dragonfly as our Baronial device is used only with permission from someone with whom it conflicted. Any questions? Call or see me? I'd like to have any entries by Champion's Tourney, Berember 21.

Next, news from Kingdom level for the following:

Torin Careon--name and device returned from Laurel, time and reason unknown.

Roderick of Warwick--name and device sent to Laurel, Sept. 1987. Michael Sean Ian McGee--device returned because of conflict.

In Service,

Ly. Ceithlenn nic Ruaidhri

Shropicler Greetings unto the populaces

Sorry that this issue is late but I kept hoping to get more officer reports. We haven't heard from the Treasurer, Minister of Arts, Marshall, Luchistnik, or Chatelaine in at least two months.

Gome on officers, we need to hear from you next month.

As most of you know, I plan on going to California for a couple of months. I plan to leave the Dragonflyre so that whomever takes it over for those months will just have to type out the officer's reports and put it all together. Anyone interested contact either myself or Zevac.

I have a couple of other things I wanted to talk about here but right now I have forgotten what they are. When I remember, I'll right them down in a notebook and then let you know next month. Until then, I am

In Service to the Dream,

Ly. Gabriella la Fiorentina

Announcements

In regards to needleworkers--There will be an organizational meeting at the Keep on November 2. Please bring yourself and any interested children. Anyone with Kingdom or Baronial badge patterns please send them or bring them to this meeting.

Ceithlenn

In regards to Crown Tourney--The list for people willing to help with the Troll Booth and the feast is awfully small. If some of you want to help, the Troll Booth is only Friday night, and then it will close Saturday morning around nine, I think. Any who help with the preparation and serving of the Feast can eat it for nothing. I'm not sure how many we need for the Troll Booth but I do know that I need about eighteen more people. Any volunteers???

Mammara and Gabriella

Some of you Ladies have expressed an interest in learning about being a Lady-in-Waiting. For those of you who are interested, Lady Phillipa Lloyd de la Tarifa(Patricia Gardner) 942-1045. We are holding a class Monday, October 19 at 7:30 at the Keep. Come on, Ladies, let's give a good turn out.

Phillipa:

Tales from the Tuory Town

In the last few months, I have had a chance to eatch up on some tail; neylected realing. Turing this time, I have discovered some wanderful tasks, but fiction and non-fiction, that I would like to share with you. So, without further ado.....

LIOS OF INSEASE by. Forgan Hywelyn

Frian fors.....warring, lover, statesman, possibly the greatest king Ireland has ever known. In this novel, Is. Llywelyn has created a work filled with vibrant life, a colorful tapestry of life in another age. The Washington Post calls it "A royal read...without a misteap and with a touching beauty..." These sentiments I heartly agree with. I enjoyed this took, and I think you will too. With the long Winter nights ahead, this would be a perfect book to settle down with. So, if you are looking for some "light period" reading, this may just be the book for you. FITTEN - Rating ****

CELTIC EYTH AND LEGGED, POSTRY AND ROHANCE by. Charles Squire

" I invoke the land of Priu!
The shining, snining sea!
The fertile, fertile hill!
The wooded vale!
The river abundant, abundant in water!
The fishful, fishful lake!"

Thus invoked the druid Amergin in the tale of the "Pattle of Hoytura the Borthern," the legendary tattle between the Celtic Gods and their mortal adversaries. In this lyric passage we not only find a window into another time and place, we also find an insight into this took as well. CFITIC MYTH AND LEGEND is an invaluable resource book for people in the SCA interested in celtic mythology. The book is well researched, with copins footnotes. For those of us with a "heruidic" persusation, the pronunciation guide in the tack will come in handy. So, if you have ever wondered who luck lackada was, or how to pronounce such "citic tongue twisters as: Cuchulainn, Diancecht, or doithiu, this is the book for you.

This is it for this month. See you again real soon.

.

Who's Who V'tavia

Jarnulf and Ulfgrim were brothers, sons of Grim Goltosk and Odindisa Gunnarsdatter who lived in Norway. Farming and wiking were Jarnulf's work; Ulfgrim lived with him. Odin had laid his hand over both brothers: Jarnulf was a godi, a priest of the god, but Ulfgrim was a berserker. Instead of a mail shirt, he wore a wolf's skin into battle.

In 852, the brothers and their men sailed to Ireland, to join their kinsman, Olaf the white in the struggle against the Danes. Olaf became king over the Irish vikings and set his capital in Dublin. Jarnulf and Ulfgrim settled near that city and built a prosperous farm. The next year, Jarnulf wed with Aisling ni Diarmid, Adaughter of a local noble. They began breeding sons as well as cattle. Thorgrim, Ketil, the twins, Alsvith and Fionn, and Diarmuid bore Jarnulf's Blood and taxed Aisling's strength.

Ulfgrim was younger than his brother, adept at violence on the berserker path. He found a place in the king's bodyguard, and his sword slew many. Since his brother's wedding, Ulfgrim found little happiness with women. His first sight of Aisling drove an arrow into his heart; the wedding left the arrowhead to fester within him. At first, he thought to lead her into being unfaithful, but she refused all advances, insulting him and his berserker-gang when they chanced to be alone.

On a hard evening in October, Ulfgrim came to Jarnulf's farm. His brother was away serving the god, and the boys were living with foster-families at the time. Aisling was alone. Against her will, she fell to talking with the beserk, about hi religion and hers. They baited each others first playfully, then cruelly. Then the rage came on Ulfgrim. He seized her, bore her to the ground, and took her. Where is your White Christ now?" he cried afterward, and, still enraged, he quit the house and returned to Dublin.

Aisling kept her shame to herself for fear that she, not Ulfgrim, would be blamed. In the summer of the following year, she bore her only daughtem: At first, she was named Kriemhild, but Jarnulf called her Moriath, after the princess of Irish legend whose mother always kept one eye open to watch her, even in aleep.

Moriath fretted under the teachings of Aisling and her women. Her brothers, returned from fosterage, found it a game to steal her away from mother and nurse. They led her on romps through the country, teaching her to ride, shoot, and fish. Yet when she asked that they teach her the arts of spear, aword, and axe, but they refused.

When Moriath was ten, Aisling ni Diarmuid died. Jarnulf and the sone raised a stone for her. Moriath ran wild now, for her brothers thought themselves too old to play with her. Thorgrim had sailed back to Norway, Ketil had gone to Limerick, and the other three worked the land with their father.

She spent the days riding on her Irish pony, visiting the monks in the holy places, hunting up Norse sibyls in their squalid huts. Seeing her interest in religious lore, her father began to teach her the way he followed. Yet she would call on the old Irish gods as often as Odin, for her wanderings had taken her to t those who remembered even Lugh, Brigid, and the Morrigan. In her heart, she longed to be like the Morrigan and the Valkyries, the wild women of war, but that her father, fond as he was, would not allow. She obeyed him.

When Ulfgrim heard of Alsling's pregnancy, he left Dublin and did not come back until after her death. No one knew where he went, and he told no one. He bore more scars than when he had left, and one of his eyes was missing. There was no friend ship between him and Moriath: she reminded him too well of Aisling, and though she admired him, she did not like him.

Moriath had no suitors. The young men whom her father would see her wed did not like her ways; the young men who did like her, he forbade her to see. "You must not marry beneath your family," he said, and she obeyed him. She rode over the country on her Irish pony, playing at being a Valkyrie and making up staves in her head. She grew to womanhood in that wise.

"Look you," Ulfgrim said to her one night. "You love your father well, yet why do you shun your uncle?"

She shrugged and did not answer him. He had been drinking at the table, and not that Jarnulf had gone to rest, had taken a whole bottle from one of the servants.

"I have as much claim on you as he does; we are kin. But you show me no proper respect. You are not the lady your mother was."

"Indeed, that would be a difficult thing. My mother had all the graces befitting a woman."

Diarmuid and Fions, who had not yet gone to bed, saw the beginnings of an argue ment and tried to turn the conversation aside. But Ulfgrim anarled and said, "You whelps, whose veins run thick with milk, leave us alone. We are two of a kind, and babes should not bother warriors."

"Warriors?" said Moriath. "Who are you calling a warmier?"

"You are more a warrior than your brothers. It runs in the blood."

"Jarnulf is more a godi than a warrior."

"Indeed, and he is the most peaceful godi I have seen. When was the last time the dedicated a man to Odin?"

Moriath stood, "You will not talk about my father so. He has served well; Odin has never been displeased,"

"But Odin is displeased with your father; he has cursed him and cast him out of Valhalla forever."

"What know you of my father to say that!"

"I am your father," Ulfgrim stood also, grinning. "And it is no wonder the daughter of a berserk does not act like a proper woman."

"You are lying, Jarnulf is my father,"

"How can you be her father?" asked Flonn. "Our mother never strayed."

"I took her for myself, and got you on her, Moriath. By Hel, you are like her!"
Ulfgrim cried.

The three siblings stood in shock for a moment. "You raped my mother?" said Moriath. She unsheathed her dagger and lunged at Ulfgrim, who was not on guard. The knife caught him across the throat and cut him from ear to ear.

now she was both avenger and kin-slayer. Leave, said her brothers. If you run now, they will not catch you. Do you think Jarnulf will have mercy on you't they asked. You slew the godi's brother. No were-gild could pay for that.

So she saddled the horse she had given up the pony for, and gathered her things together. Before she left, she made her brothers promise a thing. "When Jarnulf dies, see that he is sent to Odin in the manner befitting a man of his rank. Do not let your neighbors shame you into burying him like they do their dead. Take my maidservant for his woman in Valhalla, take my other horses for his horses, take my dogs for him dogs, put my gold and precious things by him mide."

For a year, she lived in the wild, an outlaw, shunning all who passed by. They one day in November, she saw a great smoke rising to the sky, and knew that the brothers had kept their word.

Ireland held no more for her. She turned her horse to the South and rode, eventually finding passage to England and from there to the continent where she made her way to the barony of V'tavia.

Bound for PennsicXVI a chronicle by Gabriella la Fibrentina

Tuesday, August 11-The day was finally here. As I finished packing, my mother stood watching and asked if everyone else would be bringing this much with them. When I told her yes, she said where would they put it all. Well, I watched as Doc with the assistance from Tedrick, Zevac; Rusty, and Cire put all my stuff plus eleven other people's things on the bus. Then I learned that we'd' be picking up six more people in Forgotten Ses with all their stuff. It was a miracle but we did it. And we were on our way.

Mednesday, August12--We hit a detour somewhere in the middle of Ohio that slowed us down by a couple of hours. Oh well! Getting on toward evening, we were close to Pennsylvania and decided that instead of stopping for a cit-down dinner, me'd push on: We made it to Cooper's Lake around mine o'clock. Took a very few minutes to get registered then on to the camp site. Camp was set up by eleven and people were on the move looking for friends and acquaintances.

Thursday, August 13-The day dawned bright and early but not me. Oh.

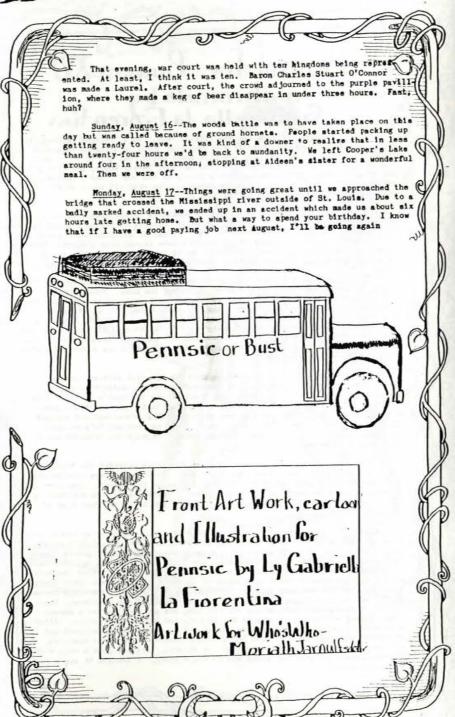

I wasn't far behind it and soon started exploring the area. Found the merchant's barn and the merchant's outside of it. As I wandered through the area, I met up with Her Majesty, Lady Phillipa, Countees Elisabeth, and some of the others from our group. I missed opening court because I went into town on a food run. I understand that Her Majesty was carried in on a litter. I bet she looked terrific. That evening, Lady Satars and I wandered through the various camps and even ended up at the Rolling Thunder camp. This was a very enjoyable and interesting experience.

Friday, August 14-- n this day, I took the hay rack ride around the shole campground. I saw some of the renowned Tuchucks(I think this is the correct spelling). There was more time spent at the merchant's booths. Even followed Her Majesty around for awhile and inadvertantly was not there when a merchant shot her. The guy had been playing with a rubberband and claimed it just went off accidentally. Yeah, sure. Come to find out he's an agent from the Midrealm. No, no, just kidding, but Her Majesty was offended and I can't say I blame her.

That evening was kind of quiet. Their Majesties attended the Midrealm feast and court that lasted way into the night. Various fighters were hitting the sack early in preparation for the big battles on the morrow. Some were still recovering from the party of the night before. There couldn't be any dancing up in the barn until the court was finished so a lot of people just kind of wandered around.

Saturday, August 15-The events of this day will endure in my memory as a special and precious time. There was a muster; I think, around 9:15 at the purple pavillion. King William gave a rousing speech then the fighters formed up and we all marched to the field where the field battle was to be. The battle took approximately an hour to an hour and a half. The Midrealm took the tattle with the assistance of the mighty force of Calontir. There was a lunch break and then time for the pass battle. Although we were not far from where the actual tattle was to take place, you couldn't see the fight for the fighters. Eventually, I gave up and made my way back to camp and got in line for a shower.

I was joined within a half hour by Her Majesty and Her Royal Highness. After they made it in and had just gotten all scaped up when William returned and Traquested her presence: We gave her a falcon tabard, also one to Sussemah, and they made their way to the door of the showers. William gave a very moving victory speech and what had moved him to his victory. I thought it was a very moving the state of the showers. William gave a very moving the state of the showers. William gave a very moving the state of the showers. William gave a very moving the state of the showers. William gave a very moving the state of the showers.

King William's Wall

As I came down to Cooper's Lake In answer to the Call. I saw forty-seven Calon men aMarchin' with a Wall. Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-ay!

Did ya come by the Calons man? and did ya come down to stay? and did ya see King William and his Men as they marched away? Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-ay!

Once we were the minions of the Middle Realm, but now we have our own King with a Falcon on his helm.
Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-ay!

Did ya come by the Eastern camp? and did ye their numbers see? Come tell to me young Calon Scout What might their numbers be. Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-ay!

They winna knock our shieldwall down
They winna break it free,
But if they knock our shieldwall down
We will never flee.
Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-ay!

If that sad fate should come to pass
Then I would turn to ye,
and ye'd take your greatsword in yer hand
and ye'd gang in wi' me.
Singing Dedi-1-0, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-1-0-1-sy!

Them that were Calon brothers brave went in amangst the thrang, and they swapped doon the Eastern lads with swords baith sharp and long.

Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-ay:

The First Stroke King William gave
The Tyger King did reel.
The Second Stroke King William gave his banner he did steal.
Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-i-av!

A cry arose amongst the Eastern lads when they saw their banner fall, and we lifted it and carried it a Triumph of our wall.

Singing Dedi-i-o, sing Calontir, sing Dedi-i-o-1-ay:!!!

Lord Angus of Blackmoor

Transcribed by the Chronicler, to the best of her ability, from the copy written out by Lord Angus.

00000000000000000

Valor Tourney VIII a chronicle by Gabrielle la Fioren

The event started on Friday evening, with people coming in from all over the kingdom. It was Valor weekend. People ambulated around the camping area, assisting friends and acquaintances with their set-up. The camp finally quieted around four in the morning.

The late hour of going to sleep didn't stop the fighters though. Bright and early next morning, they were out there getting their armor inspected and getting suited up to start the Three-man Melee. The Guzzling Gargoyle was scurrying around to meet the demand of the public for something to awaken with. Soon the arona of coffee and the sound of fighting drifted throughout the settlement. Opening court was held but unfortunately, this chronicler was on troll booth duty and was unable to attend. Soon after court, the fighting started in earnest. Towards one or two in the aftermoon, while the fighting was still going on, Her Majesty, Mammara held a royal luncheon consisting of oriental delicacies prepared by Lord Gideon. There was a wonderful subtlety made by Her Excellency, Aldeen the Audaclous.

The melee tourney lasted until around four in the afternoon. It was to be followed by a woodstalk but it was cancelled due to pesky critters called mosquitoes. Various groups got together to do their own thing concerning supper but later in the evening, Her Majesty's mideastern dance troupe performed. Again, this chronicler could not tell you how it went because you see, she was in it. Now, from that point of view, it went well. The evening then dissolved into the Bardic Circle around the campfire. His Majesty, William, had managed to get ahold of some song books and that led to a few more people joining in with the singing.

A couple of things that was forgotten but should be mentioned was that there was an arts and sciences critique for people who were nevices or who did not hold an award above a trillium argentum. I understand that it went over real well. While this was going on, there was also an auction which raised money for the Baronial Keep and the Kingdom traveling fund. Some of the things I heard offered was an hour's worth of massage. That sounds interesting.

Sunday dawned grey and rainy but did that stop the stalwart fighters. NO! The tournament began after opening court Sunday morning. The tournament for the Valor champion that is. It lasted till late in the afternoon and was followed by the Guardian of Valor Tourney. The feast followed at eight. It was a delicious repast or so I am told because I was helping with the merving and did not get a chance to taste it.

There followed Kingdom and Baronial court. It was an emotional experience to watch. Their Excellencies, William and Mammara stepped down as Baron and Baroness after seven years. Talk about getting choked up. During Kingdom court, a surprise was in store for the chronicler. I got my Award of Arms along with Briallen, Gawaine, and Harold(Hal). Then Aideen and Tedrick were chosen and sworm in as the new Baron and Baroness of V'tavia. Before William and Mammara stepped down they passed out Valor knifes from years past and to the current champion of Valor, Roderick.

Monday, the fyrdeman fought against the men-at-arms. Then Closing Court. Goodbye and Farewell until another year is past. Everyone will be looking forward to Valor IX next Labor Day Weekend. It sure beats watching the Jerry Lewis Telethon for excitement.

XX MANON XXX

The Barony of the Lonely Tower invites you to attend Bartolomeo's last fling,

DECADENCE III - THE HIGH ROAD

DATE: October 10, A.S. XXII

SITE: Danish Vennelyst Park, 7100 N. 31st St., Omaha.
The site is wet. Food, motel, liquor store, and other amenities are located nearby. Opens at 10 am.

TROLL 900TH: Friday Night Troll Booth is at Lady Sile s, 2430 Newport Ave., Omaha. (402) 455-9742 The site's Phone is 451-9923 (Sat. ONL)

TOURNEY: There will be a double elimination prize tourney.

Prizes donated by the Lonely Tower Armourers Suild

COMPETITIONS: Hedieval Munchies - Painting and Drawing Decadent Limerick - Brewing and Vintning Heretical Heraldry - SCA Fhoto - Herbalism Personna Biography - Free-Style Embroider Decorative Pillow/Floor Covering - Foetry Counted Embroidery - Hiscellaneous Crafts Decadent Nightwear (NO COSTUME IS NO COSTUME)

LATE ADDITION: A Period Style Bawdy Song Contest Histress Horgana is providing the prize.

If you have questions on criteria or competition specifics, please contact the autograph or see your seneschal for a more

FEAST: A culinary tour de force' Follow Bartolomeo s route from the Occident to the Orient. We will be serving four removes, each from a different and exotic land. (Portugal, The Holy Land, India, and Jathay.)

MERCHANIS: You are most welcome! Please contact the Autocrats to make prior arrangments.

BARDIC: Besides the Bawdy song contest there will be a Bardic Circle and any interested Bard is invited to perform. (Performers please contact the Autocrats.)

SMALLS: We will have a children's table at Feast and other activities are scheduled during the day. (including the possibility of a Ministry of Children session.)

For a nominal fee, we will have babysitters available, including during feast. (Flease notify us, in advance, if you will be using this service.)

COSTUME: Iberian, Middle Eastern, East Indian & Chinese costumes are strongly encouraged. There will be an informal competition of theme costumes, judged throughout the day. Prizes will be awarded!

There will be a L.O.O.S.E. Lunch available for a small fee.

Crash Space is limited! Please contact us in advance to make arrangements. A list of inexpensive hotels is available for a S.A.S.E. or at the Troll Booth.

JUDGING INTEREST INVENTORY

10
For more information or to make	e reservations contact:
Abbot Ld. Ambrose Montrose	Ly. Tamarra Neizvyestnovna
c/o Shaun Gilpin 1112 Kingston	c/o Robin L. Bayless 1411 Englewood Drive
Bellevue, Ne. 68005	Bellevue, Ne. 68005
(402) 292-3590	(402) 292-1170
This event is brought to you t Saint Frederick's of Holy Wood you Decadence I and Decadence	. 11.
£ 11 . 13 . 1 . 1	Marih!
	(Tar 10)
OM.AHA	200 201000
Willia I
Z fot wedn
TAMBO	Mary Town
Vennelyst Park	7.6
Take ent 13 (300's	1) from (60)
Proceed South to !	Bondessen or (sec. v.) 52"
One flock west, the	31-1
TROLL: 1430 Ne.	uport Are. (NICO W.)
	,
7 1 (1 7	: 10 1 65
11100	121191
1 (1 1/1 1)
Service Control
DAY WILLIAM
19
M. K. WOV
With the state of	1) ((
	N N
日(八十二十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十十
THE TOTAL THE	1 11/1
	5.7.7.13
	ニーシーンン

SCIENCES	1 1 1	!	ARTS	Areas or Categ	Telephone:	City, ST ZIP:	Address:	SCA Name:	Mundane Name:
1				ories of Interest that
				Areas or Categories of Interest that I would be interested in judging:

The destruction of Babylon, woodcut c. 1450.

	Cale	mbar
Sunday	Illonday	Tuesda	ý Weo
October 4 Porulace Meeting Fighter Practice	October 5	October 6 7:0010:00 The Saithy	0ct for 7 7:0010:00
at Linwood Park October 11	October 12	October 13	Bardie Girole October 14
Fopulace Meeting Fighter Practice at Linwood Park	7:0010:00 Costuming with Countess Elisateth	7:0010:00 The Smithy	7:0010:00 Dance Practice
October 18 Populace Meeting Fighter Practice at Linwood Park	October 19 7:0010:00 Learning to be a Lady-in-Waiting w/Ly Phillipa	October 20 7:0010:00 The Smithy	October 21 7:0010:00 Fardic Circle
October 25	October 26	October 27	October 28
Populace Meeting Fighter Practice At Linwood Park Drama group at the Keep 2:00	7:0010:00 Costuming with Countess Elisabeth	7:0010:00 The Smithy Neat Stuff Commi	7:0010:00 Dance Practice
November 1	November 2	November 3	November 4
Populace Meeting Fighter Practice Officer's Meeting at Mammara's house Guinea pig feast	7:0010:00 Needlework Organiza- tional Meeting	7:0010:00 The Smithy	7:0010:00 Bardic Circle at this time.		the envelo	-Dragonflyre re- articles to be in pe on the office dnesday October 21.

Thursday	Friday	Saturday
October 1	October 2	October 3
7:0010:00 Mideastern Dance with Manmara		Samurai Challenge
October 8	October 9	October 10
Her Grace must pack for the Outland Phun		Decadence III Lonely Tower (Omaha, Ne) Outland Phun Scorpion's Hollow (Clovis, NM)
October 15	October 16	Oatober 17
7:0010:00 Mideastern Dance with Mammara		Orc Wars at Grey Niche Grey Niche (Memphis, Tn)
October 22	October 23	October 24
7:0010:00 Mideastern Dance with Mammara Populace Meeting		A Celtic Quest Gnomountain (Grinnel, Ia)
October 29	October 30	October 31
7:0010:00 Mideastern Dance with Mammara	7:30???? V'tavian Halloween Celebration	Halloween in Longridge Longridge (Sikeston, Mo) All Hallow's eve at Elkshire Elkshire (
November 5	November 7	November 8
7:0010:00 Mideastern Dance wwith Mammara

TO

a

0

9 0

ald

pu,

0

~

S

al

D

3

andr

0 0

so ×

0

m

	What
1	What classes		COMMENTS		-		1
	taught			1		-	1 1 1 1 1
	an d			İ			-
	taken
	, a		į	į		1
	R. U. S. H.			-	-	1 that oul d						-
1	1 6		- 1	- 1	1	-	- taught and taken at R.U.S.H. that would be beneficial?

Greetings unto the Known World from the Phun-o-crat, Lord Marcus the Vintner.

The harvest is almost over and the hot air balloons are filling the azure skies of al-Barran with their multi-colored hues. It is now time to think phune. Their Majesties, Arton (rhymes with Argon) and Tara wish you all to come and have phun October 9-12, 1987.

The site is Ned Houk Park, 10 miles north of Scorpion's Hollow, Kingdom of the Outlands. (That is, Clovis, New Mexico, USA) See attached map. This is a beautiful site, one of the best I've ever seen. Thank you, Kendra. There is room for many hundred happy campers. There are motels in Clovis for creature comforts. There is running water. No firewood on site, so bring some or bring charcoal. No showers, and a couple of ponds. The ponds are home to fowl, therefore Fido, Fifi, ferrets and other pets MUST stay at home. ORM are allowed. Lord Cathyn Bluesword, fresh out of the doghouse, will be the pet patroller.

The Phun-o-crat will be camping at the gate and will be serving gate guard chili for those who dare Friday night. The site fee of $5.00 (adults), $2.00 for adolescents, greeblies (children) are free, and a joke, pun, funny story, and/or practical jokes will be due at the gate upon entry.

FIGHTING - Open field battles., This will pit the dreaded Blue Army against the Red Menace. There will be killing from behind (anyone striking from behind will be removed for the duration of the phune). There will be people filming these meless, and we ask you to fall down when you're dead. Special marshalls will be used to help control the confusion. Be dead, stay dead, the grave robbing marshalls will check on you to assure your safety.

Mad Dog Tourney. This is a fighter's delight, fighting all day long. Each fighter will have a 3x5 card to record victories and fighters will receive a point for fighting the match; 2 points for winning; 3 points for killing a knight; 4 points for knocking off nobility; and 5 point-for killing a King or Queen. No treason this week-end. If fighters wish to drop out for awhile, they pick up their 3x5 card and place them on hold for later. Winner is the Mad Dog with the most points. There are several different ways to win. Try it, you'll like it.

Royal Guard Melee. Baronies, Principalities, and Kingdoms, present to us your guard of seven non-white-belted personns. They will do melee battle. All guard units will be let loose upon the field. The winners will remain alive. Special prize to the best dressed uniformed unit. Let's look nice and fight fair and hard for our Royalty. Mercenaries may be hired for those who wish this type of team fighting. There will be no killing from behind in this melee.

Castle Resurrection Battle. This will be a red vs. blue battle, with an unusual scenario. The winner of the open field battle retreats to the safety of their keep. The onslaught will begin with killing from behind in this melee. This will be a rather long battle, with holds called to rest up all the fighters.

Troll Bridge Battle. The trolls and their friends, the Outlands and their friends, will take on the Known World. We will be battling on and around the MOKA Bridge. The trolls have a few tricks up our sleeves, so beware. There will not be killing from behind.

The fighting conventions for The Outlands will be posted and distributed at the gate.

Lady Ishtar Ina will be in charge of the Outlandish Children's College Cooperative. Parents, note the word Cooperative. We expect an hour per child in the College. The College will be open during the daylight hours only. He have arts and crafts planned for the creative greeblie (child).

For those with the loose tongue, we have a gossip fence. We will provide Oreos and sour milk; bring your own saucer.

There will be an impromptu arts & sciences project. Haster Ark Kazad asks the question "Which comes first, the chicken or the egg?" You find out the answer Sunday p.m.

We want all of the Known World

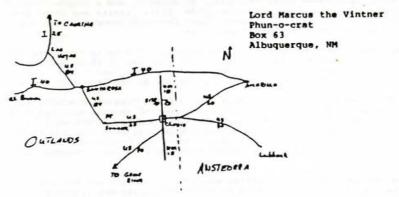

If you can't come, that does not mean you can't play. Write to me, the Phun-o-crat, with your tall tale of woe. The most amusing tale will win.

If you want to talk to a real person instead of a troll, please contact Lady Kendra Lianne, c/o Terry Vogt, 516 Giddings, Clovis, NM 88101, (505) 762-6621.

We want all of the Known World to come and have phun in October. Bring a smile. Bring a friend. Bring a joke. See you soon.

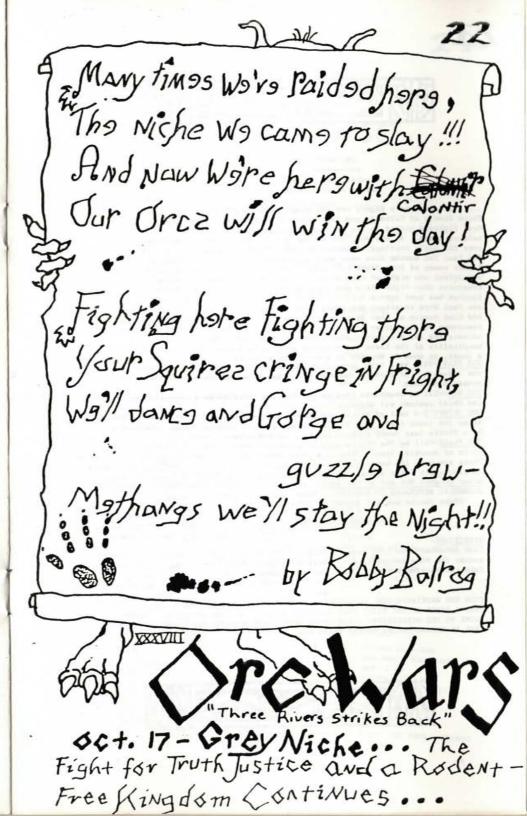

Trollishly yours,

AN INTER-KINGDOM ABIS AND SCIENCES DISPLAY will be held at the First Annual Outlands Inter-Kingdom Phune event in Clovis, New Hexico on October 7th-12th. All artisans and craftsmen are encouraged to bring items for the display, which will be held sometime Baturday afternoon. It would be most helpful if items were accompanied by documentation and a 3X5 card giving the name of the artist, a description of the item, and a short description of the technique(s) used in the item's construction. Artists are also welcome to stay with their work to answer questions and ensure security for their items. Persons interested in having items in the display or wishing to inquire further should contact the Outland's Minister of Arts and Sciences:

Lady Beatrix von Wertenberg C/O Jan Watson 3062 East Long Circle South Littleton, CD 80122 Phone: (303) 721-7237

ORC WARS

October, 16, 17, 18 Barony of Grey Niche

......Last year a mighty war was fought between the Barony of Three Rivers of Calontir and The Barony of Grey Niche of Meridies. Many fighters toiled in the hot sun to achieve victory for their beloved homes. At the end, the Barony of Grey Niche stood victorious over the noble warriors of Master Stephen Ironhand, Baron Three Rivers. The last few months have seen such activity in the wastelands that a former enemy of Grey Miche call home. The only people to stand alone and defeat the might of Grey Niche are "THE ORCS", a band of rag-tag creatures that fight dirty and smell worse. It is known that Baron Stephen has sent agents into the wastelands to negotiate a pact with the foul Orcs to attack and bring under the yoke of tyranny the simple and kind people of Grey Niche. On October 16, 17, and 18 join the remainder of the border fighters of Meridies to strike down these animals and the mis-guided allies from Three Rivers. Enjoy the hospitality of the Baron and Baroness Grey Niche in what will, without a doubt, go down in history as a most unusual event. THE FEAST-Will be a true feast from the Hiddle East, based on the Feast of the Assassin. Be sure to remember that the theme for the evening will be centered on this.

THE WAR-Will be countless battles between the Three River's troups(along with the Orcs) against all opposition.

ORC OLYMPICS-A test of mental and physical proveress against the best of the Orcs.

After the feast there will be dancing and a bardic circle. Also, there will be a Middle-East dance contest held during the feast.

THE PLACE-Will be The Mississippi River Group Camp at Shelby Forest State Park north of Memphis, Tenn. This is a cabin event so try to reserve serly, if possible. There are only 100 beds with plenty of camping space near the festivities. There is also ample floor space. Cost for the event is SII before October 8th and SII after October 8th and at the door. THE SITE IS EXTREMELY DISCREETLY WET-KEEP ALL ALCOHOLIC SEVERAGES TO YOURSELF. Send Reservations and questions to:

(Make checks out to) BARONY OF GREY HICHE, SCA, Inc.

P.O. BOX 11184 MEMPHIS, TENN. 3811

Exit.

(Call an autocrat at 901 452-9881-ask for Bear or Heather)

DIRECTIONS:

FROM ARKANSAS-Take I-40 east across the Mississippi river-Take the Watkins(North) Exit.

FROM NASHVILLE-Take 1-40
West to Memphis, then take the north loop of I-40 and get off on the Watkins(north)

FROM JACKSON MISS.take I-55 then get of I-240 North. Get off on the Watkins(north) Exit.

FROM THE WATKINS(NORTH) EXIT-FOLLOW WATKINS UNTIL IT DEAD ENDS. TAKE A LEFT.
TAKE A RIGHT AT THE FIRST STOP SIGN AND GO PAST THE PARK ENTRANCE. FOLLOW SCA
SIGNS TO THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER GROUP CAMP. REMEMBER-THE FULL NAME OF THE STATE PARK IS MEEMAN-SHELBY FOREST STATE PARK.

quomouncain presents:

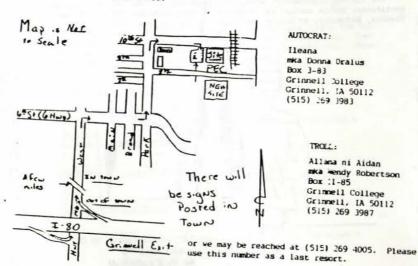

a certic quest

UAIE: Saturday and Sunday, October 24-25
Saturday's events include a quest based on Celtic myth with a prize for the best adventuring team.
A team can consist of 8 gentles with a combination of fighters, archers and non-fighters. Teams will demonstrate various abilities at stations during the quest.

FFAST: will be based upon Celtic tradition.
Please contact the autocrat with any food allergie.
and prohibitions.

FEES: Site is $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children. (activities will be provided). Feast is $7.00 postmarked by Oct. 16: $8.00 at the door. Hembers will receive a $.50 discount on fees.

SITE: Due to circumstances beyond our control, the site has moved one block south to Darby Gymnasium. Crash space is available on the gym floor. Those with special needs contact the troll (there are a very limited number of beds available.) Showers, saunas, and pool also available. Dry site during day: indiscreetly drenched at night. For more information, see seneschal's flyer or call troll.

A V'tavian Halloween Celebration

What to wear? A NON-period Costume (not just street clothes)

What is the cost?
An item of food or drink for a pot-luck feast

There will be provided a few items like some pumpkin pie

There will be general carousing, drinking, reveling, and anything else the Baronage will allow. Plus, a costume contest! The catagories will be:

and punch plus pot-lud

Best ladies costume, to be judged by the ladies.
Best ladies costume, to be judged by the lords.
Best childs costume, to be judged by the baronage.

The children will hopefully be carel for (at least parially) by the parents on a voluntary rotating shift basis(hall hour at a time, tops). Assorted activities will be available as well. Please remember, this is a night event and the keep has no good place for tired children to sleep.

For further information, or to volunt er prizes, food, suggestions, or assistance; please contact Ld. Roderick of Warwick (Randar) at any of the Tuesday, Vednesday, or Sunday meetings. (Forry, no home phone)

The Shire of Longridge announces its Hallowe'en event. As you may have guessed, it will be held on October 31, A.S.XXII (1987). The site (the same as for our Yule Feast) will be St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Sikeston, MO.

The site will open at 1:00 pm and the day's activities will include: a fighters' practice (please keep your fingers crossed for good weather); an Arts and Science display (bring things for Show-and-Tell1); a FEAST; a costume party with period (and mundane) games; and a Bardic Circle (with ghouly and ghostly tales and songs preferred). There will be dancing, too!

Would you like to come, but your small people want to Trick-or-Treat? No problem! During the day a mediaeval Hallowe'en party will be held for the Kingdom children as well as for visiting mandane munchkins from the church we are using. After the party a few chaperones from Longridge and volunteering parents will take the kids to a SAFE neighbourhood for their goodies.

The site fee will be $3.50, ($1.50 for those under 12 years old) with the feast fee being a side-dish to feed four. Longridge will provide the main course. Use the following chart:

If mundame surmame begins with A-E, please bring Bread

"F-H, "Cheese
"I-N, "Fruit
"O-S, "Salad veggies
"T-Z, "Easy dessert (such as oatmeal cookies)

Site is damp (beer, mead, wine).

For those who crave junk food, there are plenty of fast food restaurants nearby. Crash space is available, as well as convenient motels.

For more information, or reservations, contact the Autocrat, Jeanine d'Harcourt:

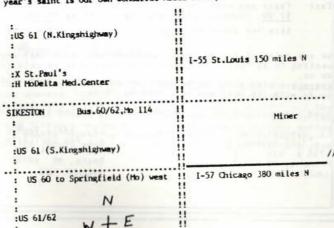

Hary Ellen Kirk Rt. 1 Charleston, MD 63834 314-683-4428 (On weekdays, call be 114-683-4420 (On weekdays, call between 4 pm and 10 pm only.) Hake checks to SCA - Longridge

For crash space contact our Seneschal, Lady Meiroli Bhan: Janet H. Hinson

Janet H. Hinson P.O.Box 16 Morehouse, MO 63868 314-667-5204

A final note: A "Saint" competition will be held during the day. Bring your most deserving folk and a list of their good deeds. They could be chosen as Longridge's patron saint for the next year. This year's saint is our own wonderful Ariel Foxley.

!! I-55 Hemphis 150 miles S

Hallow's Eve At Elkshire

Elkshire invites one and all to the Great Keep for All Hallows Eve.

Date: October 31, A.S. XXII

$ Site: Northeast Technical Community College, 801 E. Benjamine Ave., Norfolk, Hebraska. This is will a camping event, but crash space and the festivities will be moved to an alternate site in case of foul weather. No one will have to fight or sleep in cold or wet weather.

Troll: Friday night troll will be at the home of Sir Stephen Grimfalcon du Norfolk. 1100 S. 4th St., Horfolk, 402-371-8978. Crash space may be limited Friday night so prior arrangements need to be made.

Tourney: A double elimination or possibly a point system tourney will'be fought with the winner claiming the traveling Elk's Axe trophy for one year.

Feast: Ldy. Adela Dagmor, a.k.a. Ldy. Cysacsin, will prepare a feast to tantalize anyone's tastebuds. Person with dietary restrictions should write her ahead of time. Any person wishing to perform will be treated as a quest of the Shire and treated with a meal.

Archery: An archery tournament will be held either late Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning. Sunday's shoot will begin after a quick breakfast for anyone shooting or staying aound. Archery will be held regardless of weather because of the use of an indoor range.

Competitions: An open contest in the Arts with a fall or harvest theme being the only restriction. The Science competition will be one involving models of the crafts of war. Slege machines, castles, trebuchets, etc., made out of any material. Anyone wishing to donate their entry for use at demos and classes will receive our hearty thanks.

Merchants: Always welcome.

Cost: Feast and site fee postmarked by Oct. 21, will be $7.00. Anything after that date will be $8.00. Site fee alone is $3.00. Children under five free.

We are going to try and have enough marshalls so that anyone wanting to authorize in combat or archery will be able to There are also plans being made for some melees that will have to do with the Hallowed Eve, more or less.

Send reservations to the autocrat:

Send feast questions to:

TO . Ld. Geffrei Almeric Peregrinne c/n Jeff Betermann 1738 E. 5th Fremont, NE 63025 (402)721-8157

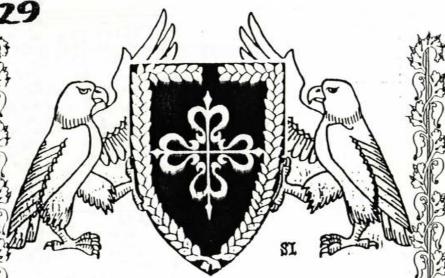

Ldy. Adela Dagmor c/o Ann Christian 401 S. 41st, Apt. 5 Omaha, NE 68501 (402)345-5303

Sound Advice

WHEN CALLING AUTOCRATS, OFFICERS & OTHER BUSY SCA FOLK VIA FARSPEAKER: If a machine answers, PLEASE wait for the tone & leave your name(s) and number, and date & time of your call, speaking clearly all the while, so they can return your call. It counts as a connected call for incoming long distance anyway & if you just hang up without saying anything, or babble something unintelligible before the machine switches to the record mode, it'll be utterly wasted for both parties.

The Barony of V'tavia is proud to host the ninth Crown List of the Kingdom of Calontir.

This Crown List will be held on Nov.14 at the camp Hiawatha where we have enjoyed Valor and Crown Lists in the past. We will be extending our usual hospitality as you have become familiar with, cabins (bring your own space heater) or tenting is, as always, available.

Arts and Science judging will be available for any project you wish to bring. Special competitions will be held for period encampments and woodworking.

We will again provide separate areas for period and nonperiod reveling. The entire site is discreetly wet, please leave no signs of alcohol use.

A corral is available for horses, contact the equestrian guild for more information and organized activities.

There will be children activities during the day and a childrens feast is also planned for a $2 donation,

Opening court will be at 10 am, with the tourney soon to follow. Weapon inspection should be before the start of the tourney and armor inspection during the first round on the field. His Majesty will be enforcing the "normal Calontir rules of the list", see His letter in the October Mews.

Feast shall be identifiable and pleasing to the taste. Their majesties have called for;

"little dead birds and rice", and so there shall be, and Szechuan beef, egg drop soup, rice pilaf, bread, cheese, lemonade, and more.

Site fees for day site only: for tenters: for cabina;

4. per person for weekend 5. per person for weekend 10. per person for weekend

Feast donation, $7. with membership, $7.50 without membership No advanced registration necessary There will be an auction Sun am, to raise funds for the Baronial Keep, and a trailer to haul the Kingdom Regalia

> For more information contact the autocrate; William V'tavia or Mammara Leona clo Bill or Annabel Vinduska 453 Meadow Haven Wichita Ke. 67209 316-942-1058 anytime

Greetings!

Here's the information for the Scribe's Symposium:

Places Location:

Trolli

Autocrati

Shire of Mag Mor East Campus Union 38th and Holdrege Lincoln, Nebraska

Time: Saturday, November 7, 1987

9:00am to 5:00pm Site Fee:

$1.00 Free parking close by (Site fee does not include any food or beveridge, but there are vending machines and a cafeteria in the building.

(Friday night) Lord Wolfram .on den Schwartzen Rose and Lady Ikegami Kyo o Senichi-Ama / Ted and Judith Schuler, 3008 Holdrege Str., Lincoln, NE 68503, (402)464-781. Contact the troll to arrange crash space ahead of time if at all possible.

Lady Isadora of Orange Woode / Opal Doerr, 1201 So. 15th Str., Lincoln, NE 68502

(402) 477-7703

We will be having a variety of classes as well as Guild rankings at this Symposium. The class listings, maps and the full agenda will be sent to the Seneschals when plans are finalized.

Anyone interested in teaching a subject, please contact Ladv Astrid Esbjornsdotter / Kathy Newman, 6618 So. 21st Str., Omaha, NE 68107, (402)731-1085.

The Scribe's Symposium is open to anyone who is interested in the gentle arts of calligraphy and illumination.

Calontir Brewers and Vintners Build Meeting November 21. AS 22 (1987) Barony of Lonely Tower

Business Meeting > 12 Noon > W. Dale Clark Library

Lower Level

lasting, Judging > following > 7630 Pacific (Ivenue å Judges Iraining > meeting > Omaha, NE

215 South 15 Street Omaha, ME The flome of Lady Ailada Felsenhoff

For more details, contact: Sir Roger de Bayeau Roger Boulet 801 West Briggs

> Fairfield, IA 52556 (515) 472-7397

Peregrine Frijonds John Lars Shoberg 2311 North 70 Street Omoho. NE 68104 (402) 558-3282

3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3

rush-krist kinder-bfs

WINTER RUSH SESSION & KRIST KINDER MARKET IN FORGOTTEN SEA

For your pleasure and edification, the Winter, A.S. XXII session of RUSH will be held in conjunction with Forgotten Sea's annual Krist Kinder Market in the Barony of Forgotten Sea on December 12 & 13, 1987. That's the 2ND weekend of December. The site is new this year: St. John's Diocesan Center in KC. MO. just east of 72nd and Paseo. Parking space is level, abundant and guarded; hot and cold beverages are provided along with the site fee. The wonderfully period looking and SOUNDING chapel will be used for musical classes and performances, open carrolling and court. Daytime dancing and the evening market are to take place in the great hall. Classes especially planned for children will be included in the RUSH schedule both Saturday and Sunday. Babysitting at a reasonable price, will be provided by reservation only. Onsite lunchies will be available. This is a gently WET site with on-site post-reveling and crash space available on the floor of the great hall. Smoking areas will be limited as posted by the Autocrat.

Regarding the MARKET: ALL merchants, self-contained roving peddlers, and hat-passing performers will be required to show proof of current SCA membership when paying their fees to obtain a sales permit. We ask that wares offered for sale be of a Period sort, or specifically useful in the SCA for creating a period atmosphere. Herchant tables will be priced based on space required and number of sellers, with a group rate for shared tables; fees for performers will be the same as those for peddlers, at a somewhat lower cost than table space. Special rates are available for sales or performances exclusively supporting a worthy SCA cause with no personal profit.

Details with fees and a map will be in the flyer next month, along with the RUSH Class Schedule and registration information.

AUTOCRAT of the event is Lady Hertha Blair of Froggestow, (mka Bert Comstock). Please call 816-836-9364 (before 10:30 pm if Sun-Thurs); to seek answers to your questions about the event or volunteer your services. If you feel you MUST write, PLEASE give me a number so I can respond via phone (or, take your chances & send a SASE; but, I won't promise a written response).

BONUS!: Forgotten Sea's Baronial Yule Court will take place at the same site at 7 pm on Friday the 11th, the night before the RUSH/Krist Kinder event. Their Excellencies, Baron Davro and Baroness Elwyn invite you to come early and join in our celebration and revelry!

A YULTIDE TRADITION CONTINUES --

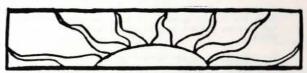

TWELFTH NIGHT IN LONELY TOWER

This year--a Viking Midwinter Feast (by Lady Amaril--always yummy!)
Short Weapons Tourney
Competitions--Viking Costume

Accessories
Jewelry
Original Dance
Toolmaking
(and, by special request) MEADMAKING

Brought to you by House Hynnddl Further information in next month's Mews (or contact the autocrat) Lord Rorik Galbraith c/o Cliff Galbraith 301 Hillcrest Drive Plattsmouth NE 68048 致以最近数据数据数据数据

The magic of TWELFTH NIGHT AT CAMELOT will return once more on January 15, 1988. The meal will be cooked by the hotel cheft the King & Queen of Misrule will reappear and there will be awide variety of special entertainment. ALL reservations must be paid in advance by January 2, 1988, and there will be no admittance at the door! We are taking pre-reservations now-send name, address, and phone-both SCA and mundane. Seating will be arranged according to the date of paid reservations, but this will help insure you a place. The hall holds 250-300 people and 57 seats are already taken! ALL reservations should be made through the General Autocrat: Lady Cerelia de Lacy, c/o Trudy Weddington, 12509 E. 17 St., Tulsa, Ok. 74128, (918) 437-5991. Those wishing to entertain should contact: Mistress Rosalyn d'Angleterre, c/o Lucy Norris, 1237 S. Louisville, Tulsa, Ok. 74112, (918) 834-5349 by December 1, 1987.

ESTRELLA WAR IV

Unto those who enjoy war and it's accompanying delights come greetings from the autocrats of Estrella War IV. Prepare yourselves for the grandest war ever staged west of the Great River February 12 through 15, 1989 (A.S. XXII) the forces of Atenvelot shall take the field and once again attempt to repel the invading forces of the Caidian and Western Armies. While much of the Known World will be a frozen wasteland, sunny Atenveldt is known for it's gracious climes, so plan now for a welcome respite from winter and get ready for Estrella IV.

In addition to some of the finest fighting anywhere, there will be a host of activities of a gentler nature: Dancing and singing at the many Bardic Circles, exploring the wonders of Merchant's Row, raising your tankard and voice in song at the Tavern, testing your skill and wits in the Great Quest, or enjoying the beauty of the Dream coming to life before your eyes.

Competitions will be held in the Arts and Sciences, Chess and Backgammon, Archery, Rapier, Shinai and much more. Plan now to display your Kingdoms "Best of the Known World " in a Forum and Gallery of the finest artistic and scientific achievments.

... NEW FOR ESTRELLA IV ...

SHOWERS . A GENERAL STORE ON SITE . GREATLY INCREASED RESTROOM FACILITIES

THE GRAND COURT STAGE . MORE MERCHANTS . MORE TO DO . MORE TO SEE

... WAR COMMITTEE ...

Duke Sir Treion of the Woods, Count Sir Dennis of the Titans, Countess Amber of the Titans, Lord Egan Blackwolf, Helen Jennet of Foxhall

MAIN AUTOCRAT Duchese Daphne c/o Daphne Altree (602) 277-5117 ALL CORRESPONDENCE c/o 4333 North 11th Avenue Phoenix, Arizona 85013

ADVANCE RESERVATIONS ARE NOW BEING ACCEPTED
Advance (se (members) Adults $12.50 Children under 10 $7.00

All currently listed meeting times and places may change. Please contact the group, meeting leader listed for correct meeting information.

ARCHERY:

Meeting Saturday afternoons after 2:30. There is also some to assist any children interested in learning. For more information, contact Lord Bear(David Pitchers) 688-1728.

RECITATION:

Meets every other Wednesday at the Keep, 7:00 p.m. Look at the current Calendar of Events to know when or contact Baron Tedrick Von Wolfschatten (Ted Hager) for more information 529-2281.

CALLIGRAPHY & If you have any interest in this activity, contact Ld. Moriagh ILLUMINATION: Telge O'Flaithbheartiagh (Bob Flaherty) for more information 943-9051

DANCE

Meeting opposite Wednesdays to Bardic Recitation at the Keep at 7:00. Check the current Calendar of Events for which Wednesdays. For more information, contact Lady Gabriella la Fiorentina (Beckie Barber)

DRAMA

New interest group for those of us who are interested in trying our hand at acting in a medeival play. First meeting will be October 25 at the Keep. For more information, contact Earl Gabriel Ap Morgan (David Cooper) 685-3152.

FIGHTER PRACTICE: Meeting Sunday afternoons in the park, Linwood, that is, until Novemb 1. Starts around noon. For more information, contact Lord Conn. Dryhmtguma of Marrs (David Dressler) 685-9565.

BATHER WORKING . This is a new interest group forming up. If you're interested, contact either Baron Tedrick Von Wolfschatten (Ted Hager) or Duke William V'tavia(William Vinduska) for more information. 529-2281 or 942-1058.

HIDEASTERN DANCE

Meeting every Thursday at the Keep. For more information, contact Her Grace, Duchess Mammara Leona (Annabel Vinduska) 942-1058.

MEAT STUFF COMMITTEE:

This is a group meeting to gather good neat stuff together for the Barony, Baronage, and the Keep. If you're interested in helping, contact Lord Robert of the Woodlands (Robert Wood) 263-4566.

POPULACE MEETING: The meetings on Sunday afternoons is an informal gathering of everyone to exchange information and ideas, particularly the ladies while their men practice their skill and expertise with sword and shield or (') whatever: Once a month, a formal gathering is called to discuss bus iness before the Barony. For more information, contact Baron Tedrick Von Wolfschatten (Ted Hager) 529-2281.

RESEARCH:

There is no formal time or gathering for this but I'm sure that if you, would approach Lord Friar Thomas Bacon(David Moreno), he would be delighted to assist you in your gathering of information for your persona or anything else you may have of interest, 685-1182.

SEWING:

Meeting every other Monday evenings at the Keep. For more information, contact Countess Elisabeth du Rossignol(Lisa Mohr) 522-7670.

Organizational meeting to be held Monday, November 2 at the Keep. For more information, contact Lady Ceithlenn nic Ruardhui(Amy Billington)

As you can see, we've had a few more iterest groups started up. Now let's keep them going by attending the meetings. Sewing is being changed to costuming and I forgot to mention the Smithy which is there to help you with any kind of metal, wood, or armoring needs. You can contact Lord Zevac at 263-4566 or even at the Keep itself.

The New Baronage Baron - Ld. Tedrick Von Wolfschatten (Ted Hager)......529-228 Baroness - Ly. Aideen the Audactous (Jane Hager).....529-2281 Officers Seneschal - Ld. Robert of the Woodlands (Robert Wood)......263-4566 Pursuivant - Ly, Ceithlenn nic Rusidhri Treasurer - Ly. Katherine Helena (Katherine Woodworth)......522-1658 Minister of Arts - Ly. Maria de la Rosa Minister of Sciences - Ld. Mortagh Teige O'Flaiththeartlagh (Bob Flaherty).....943-9051 Marshall - Ld. Conn Dryhtguma of Marr Chronicler - Ly. Gabriella la Fiorentina (Beckle Barber)......778-1038 Champion - Ld. Robert of the Woodlands Historian - Ld. Friar Thomas Bacon Luchistnik - Ld. Bear Listmistress - Ly. Ceithlenn nic Ruaidhri (Amy Billington)......524-2987 Minister of Children - Countess Hywela frech ferch Wyddel Chatelaine - Briallen Ferch Cadfael (Debbte Taylor)......524-0917