The Dragonflyre is a monthly newsletter for the subscribers within the Barony of Baravia, and others by subscriptions for $11.00 per year. Submissions policy: Art, articles, poetry, letters, etc. are gladly accepted but subject to the approval by the local Barontage and Seneshal to curtail any rebuttals or items which seem in bad taste. Submissions should be on white paper, black ink for art. Letters and articles are greatly appreciated and need not be typed.

Special Thanks to all who submitted and provided assistance.

This is the Dragonflye, a publication of the Barony of Vatavia of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. The Dragonflye is available from Patricia A. Riemann at 812 Marcellene Wichita, Kansas 67218. It is not a corporate publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. and does not delineate S.C.A. policies.

HERALDIC SYMBOLISM---NOT!

Contrary to popular belief, the different animals and items found in heraldry in period did not usually have any particular "symbolism" or "meaning" to their owners. This is a good thing when you consider some of the wierd medieval symbolism some animals and monsters had:

The Unicorn: This monster was the symbol of intemperance because if he could resist laying his head in the laps of young maidens, hunters could never catch him.

The Bat: This animal symbolized lust, because it was believed that the Bat would fornicate with any other bat, regardless of gender or any other criterion.

The Beaver: This animal symbolized peace, because it was widely held that the beaver, who was hunted for the medicinal properties of his testicles, would geld himself in order to escape from his pursuers rather than be hunted.

All symbolism cited primarily from the Florentine Fior di Virtu (Flowers of Virtue) of 1491 Unicorn illustration from the Fior di Virtu, other illustrations from Guillim's A Display of Heraldrie 2nd edition, 1632.

Deadline for the October issue of the Dragonflye will be October 10, since we have been terrible off schedule--if all submissions are in by the 10th, the Dragonflye will be out by the 15th. Then hopefully we can resume a more regular schedule. Thank you for your cooperation and patience.

Did you know?

That these names were period?

Rainbow:

This male name, which started out in Old English as Regenbeald, changed to Reynebaud, and then Rainbow due to the French influences of the Norman Conquest. (The Oxford Dictionary of English Christian Names, E.G. Wit hycombe, 3rd ed. Oxford Univeristy Press, Oxford, p.xxv)

Bubba:

This male name is Old English dating back to the 8th Century (Onomasticon Anglo-Saxon, William George Searle, Cambridge, University Press, Cambridge, p.119)

Tiffany:

This English Female name is derived from Late Latin name Theophania. This spelling of Tiffany is dated 1315. (The Oxford Dictionary of English Christian Names, E.G. Withcombe, 3ed. Oxford University Press, Oxford, p 278)

DoDo:

This male name is Old English and Old German dating back to the 8th Century (Onomasticon Anglo-Saxonicum, William George Searle, Cambridge University Press, Cambridge, p167, Mittlehochdeutes Namenbuch, Adolf Socin, Gerorg Olms Ver lagbuchhandlung, Hildesheim, p.195)

From the Arher Marshall

Summer has been most productive, thanks to our archers. Vativian archer practice was held at Lilies and Interkingdom with many an award being brought home.

A new indoor archer range has opened in town. I encourage everyone to check it out. Keep in mind this is a place of business, not an SCA site. Follow the safety rules set by the owner and treat the mundanes with the utmost of courtesy.

Winter will soon be upon us. This is a good time for exploring the libraries and researching your personas and the equipment and garb they used. Them when we travel the Kingdom next summer we can amaze them with archery and dazzle them with our dress.

In Service,

Lord Thomas Foxmoor

A Note of Thanks

I wish to thank all the good gentles who helped with the Derby Public Library display and demo. Jovan, Torin, Njalls, Vlad, Angus, Alexandria, Demetrius, Eliane, Leonardo, Marie, Eleanor, Genesyre and Melisenda. Thank you's to Marie, Sibeal and Kasimira for the display.

One more special thank you to Marie for showing me that I could autocrat something without receiving a serious injury first. (OK, so I broke a tooth the week before. At least it messed the betting pool.)

Lord Thomas Foxmoor

From the Bardic Champion

I apologize for not being able to meet with Vatabians bards more often. Saturday bardic was apparently a bad night for everyone and mundance conflicts have hampered weekday bardic for me.

In late October or early November we shall have the traditional Bardic Feast.

If possible we will have it an an indoor site.

Date, location, site fee, etc. in the next Dragonflyre.

What motion did I espy,
What movement did I see?
Right There, Tis on Long Green Stem
A Pod Bright and Silvery

There tis again a bulging heave
The pod is split in twain and from this silvered sheath
shoves some horrid ugly thing

A creation of ugliness is revealed
With Bulging eyes and Withered Wing
It must be some evil
Jest of Nature I think
With wicked but and venomous sting

Thinks I destroy this onerous bug,
A thing so slimy should not exist.
One moment though I do delay
Then, In wonderment I desist.

Before my eyes a change takes place
A long slender abdomen uncurls
Then on both sides of the body
Transparent wings unfurl

Veins as thin as fairies hair
catch the rays of beaming sun
And colors of each and every hue in gossamer softness run.

Eyes, huge and oval glow
Brown and red and green
and the graceful slender
Torso takes on an emerald sheen

As I kneel to closer view
This miracle I have seen.
Those lovely wings begin to move
Like a heart beat true and keen.

Faster and faster those glorious
ribbons of light did flash
Till I could not make out their form.
Then the body lifted and moved away from the stem upon which it was born.

It hovered there in the summer sky
The hum of its beating wings I could hear
Then darted away to begin it's first day
Bold and bright and without fear

I sat where I had knelt and looked about
I starred in wonderment for the glen was filled with beings of light as they glittered where er' they went.

And I mere man bout to earth by plan
can only marvel that by chance to be one of the few
That will ere view
The dragonflys birthing dance

Lord Elwyn of Vatavia
