FROM THE SENESCHAL

Hello Vatavia!

For those I haven't met yet, my name is Brynki Falkason and I am your new Seneschal! I want to start by saying thanks to Tove Briansdohter for doing such an excellent job as Seneschal and leaving her post in such great condition! I also want to thank Their Excellencies Robert and Heidi for being so fun to work alongside, they have made this position very easy and rewarding to step into. Finally I want to thank the populace of Vatavia, so many of you have offered support and encouragement as I have stepped into this role. I appreciate it more than you will likely ever know.

As we look ahead at this year we have lots of exciting things going on. We have our Ren Faire at the end of September and we are hosting the Crown Tournament in November. If you are able please find a way to extend a helping hand in support of those events.

We are currently still without a Cut and Thrust marshal and a Youth Minister. If you are interested in those positions please email their excellencies and I to get an interview/discussion started.

For those who have made it out to our weekly meetings, thank you! The growth and new faces we continue to see during our Wednesday meetings and Sunday practices at MakeICT has been awesome! If you are one of those new faces thank you so much for coming out and seeing what this great hobby is all about.

I'll leave you with the most important rules we should all follow:

Don't be a di...errr... jerk...yeah...Don't be a jerk.

Yours in service,
Brynki Falkason

FROM THE CHATELAINE

"We need old friends to help us grow old and new friends to help us stay young."

– Letty Cottin Pogrebin

Please make sure to be welcoming, kind, and open if you see a new person at our Wednesday night meetings! I appreciate everyone who has been chatting with our new friends during officer meetings.

The Gold Key remains closed to donations.

In service,
Mistress Aia Gold-Bearer

FROM THE ARTS & SCIENCES MINISTER

Thank you to all who attended Kingdom Arts and Sciences, and a special thank you to all who competed. Congratulations to Aia on being elevated to the order of Laurel. I look forward to seeing you all at the 24th Annual Fall Great Plains Renaissance Festival. If you have projects for display or demo for this event, please get in touch with me. There is nothing on the books for upcoming classes or project nights. If you are interested in teaching or have project ideas, please get in touch with me through Facebook or at artsandsciences@vatavia.calontir.org

- Astridr Birnudottir (Tanna Burchinal)

FROM THE DEMO COORDINATOR

As I write this the Fall Great Plains Renaissance Festival is fast approaching, September 28th and 29th. Set up will be Friday the 27th. This is one of our two largest presentations each year. It is our chance to educate the community on the history we study and our activities, to enhance our public relations, to recruit new members, and to add to our coffers by running the pop booths. The Festival gives members free admission each day, for a minimum 1/2 day's work, to make a memorial experience for the guests. Heartfelt thanks in advance to one and all for all your contributions in all the different aspects of the pre-17th century history we study. Whether demonstrating your art or science, fighting, acting as a guide through the Dell for guests, just sharing about our organization and our variety of activities or assisting in the pop booth; there is something that offers a chance for everyone to contribute. Shadowing an established member is a great way to learn interacting with the public.

We had two opportunities earlier this quarter to share our study of history. My sincere thanks to those who spent the day August 3rd at the Museum of World Treasures' Customer Appreciation Day: Their Excellencies Robert and Heidi, Master Jóhann, Noble Valeriano, Lord (the) Óttarr, Lord Leonardo. Also thanks to Milady Erien Óttarrdóttir who came, modernly dressed, to help for a few hours with the presentation on mail and mail making. Then only a short time later on August 19th was the presentation for the Oxford Villa Active Seniors Apartments. Traveling from his manor in the north was HE Robert and from the east Lord (the) Óttarr came to this requested week day display and talk. My deepest appreciation for arranging their schedules to be able to be there.

To all Vatavia's who every day share with others about the Society my sincere thanks. It is not just requested presentations but your individual efforts every day that make good public relations, that educate, that recruit. You make it possible for this Barony to build upon that.

Done by my hand on the feast day of St. Ciaran of Clonmacnoise the 9th day of September,

M Marie CD- demonstration coordinator for Vatavia

FROM THE KNIGHT MARSHAL

Greetings unto the populace of Vatavia,

We are nearing the end of the Event Season! Cattle Raids, Raid or Trade, Vertigo, King's Companie of Archers, Kingdom Arts and Sciences, and Chilies make for a super busy time for the Barony. And what's more, the Fall Great Plains Renaissance Festival is coming up soon! This is our most public demo which generates quite a bit of interest in our group. During and after shows, I strongly encourage the fighters to mingle with the fairgoers. The Festival is our primary way to recruit new members so be sure to tell them we'd love to have them join us for a practice or Arts and Sciences meeting.

Practices continue to happen even with how busy things have been thanks to my Deputy Kentaro and Lord Magnus O'Carr (Torin) so many thanks to them for helping to keep things happening locally.

Practices are on Sundays from 10 am to 2 pm at MakeICT regardless of weather (if we are indoors, we are limited to sword and shield only). On occasion, practice will also be held on Wednesdays so keep an eye on the Facebook page for those updates! 5920 E Mount Vernon St, Wichita, KS 67218.

In service,
Honorable Lord Øyríkr Raðúlfsson CT, Knight Marshal

FRM THE ARCHER MARSHAL

Greetings Vatavia

It's been awhile but I'm your Archery Marshal. You may have noticed we haven't had a practice in a while. That's because the site currently doesn't allow for archery. Our steadfast baron has been working with the local board and Wichita authorities in the hope that we will be able to do practice there soon. Until we either convince the authorities or find an alternate sight that will allow us to practice we sadly won't be holding practice. Please bear with us while we figure a way forward.

YIS Donald MacDondald, OD

FROM THE WEB MINISTER

Hello Vatavia!

If you haven't noticed yet our website has changed quite a bit! Many updates have been made to the backend and frontend of the website. Huge thanks to Corrigan and Sung for all the art provided. It was a really substantial upgrade to the look of the website. Over the next several months I aim to continue making improvements to the website and bring back many of the items we lost when we switched hosting providers. So far, I've added a working and updated calendar and I made some updates to the award recommendation system. The next big task will be restoring the Baronial Order of Precedence that was lost several years ago from the website. This will be a large undertaking so if you are interested in contributing please reach out! Also please contact me if you find any issues with the website.

Yours in service,
Brynki Falkason

FROM THE EXCHEQUER

Greetings, Vatavia!

We did not host any events locally, so we had a pretty quiet quarter. Our biggest news is that our bank account move is wrapping up and we have several things coming up! Ren Faire is next weekend and we are looking forward to hosting the soda booth and holding champions in the Dale. Crown tournament is right around the corner, too! Anyone who would like to help out with the soda booth is welcome to come by or sign up.

Currently the bank balance stands at $ 23,053.39.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at exchequer@vatavia.calontir.org.

YIS, Alicia Niel

HL Brinky moved to allot $250 for the rental, fuel, and insurance. HE Robert was the loudest seconding the motion. It was approved. Water bearing expenses was mentioned. It was noted that there is a budget for the two Ren fairs already in the yearly budget.

It was announced that fabric had been ordered and delivered for the next three panels of the roll of arms. This is already in the budget since the rolls are considered regalia. The purchase order for $27.97 will be delivered to the Exchequer.

There being no other business Ly. Alicia declared the meeting closed.
