From the Baronial Minister of Sciences

The Barony's supply of Valor necklaces has now run out. Baron Gwayne has asked me to arrange a competition based on the Valor necklace, in order to find someone within our Barony to fashion more of them. This competition will be held at the Birthday Bash. This gives everyone some time for consideration. Gwayne desires that this be kept simple, so that your imagination can go wild. These are the basic requirements:

- the word "valor" within the design
- a sword incorporated within the design
- a dragonfly incorporated within the design
- 2 stones of blue or gold or both

The previous necklace was made of brass that was enameled. Whoever wins this competition will be commissioned to create 5 more for a total of 6 necklaces.

Garlick Pickled Eggs

20 eggs, hard boiled and peeled
8 cloves of garlic slivered
1 tsp mustard seed
1 tsp cardamon seed
2 tsp salt
1 TB dried tarragon or 4 sprigs fresh
1-1/2 quarts of cider vinegar
2 bay (laurel) leaves
2 tsp black peppercorns

Pack eggs, as tightly as possible in two 1 quart jars (wide mouth work best), with 2 sprigs tarragon (or 1/2 Tb dried) and 4 cloves garlic.

Combine all remaining ingredients in a pot (glass or enamel is recommended) and bring to a boil. Simmer gently 15 minutes.

Strain the whole spices out and pour the hot vinegar into the jars. Leave approximately 1/2 inch of head space. Place lids on jars, seal and process in a boiling water bath for 10 minutes. Remove and cool.

Transportation requires only that the jars be kept out of direct sunlight and extreme heat.

REGIONAL
ARCHERY PRACTICE
APRIL 10, 1994
KANSAS NEWMAN

The second in our series of 'letters back home' scribed by those within our own barony is provided below for your enjoyment.

Hail and Good Morrow Good Gentils,

I bring ye greetings. Diedre hath requested of me to inform thee about myself. I therefore set down in words my short history.

I was born the third son of a Welsh Lord. Upon my fathers death my two older dragons brothers from Hades drove me from my rightful home. After wreaking my revenge on these traitors I was forced to leave Wales and journey a far.

I have lived many years as a warrior, fighting in many wars for many men and over no few women. I was good at my craft and was well paid for my skills.

I now, in my later years, have lived as a simple bard. A man of words, not wars, dealing with songs not swords, a poet not a plunderer. I happily sing my peoples history and spin the webb of the magic of poem.

I bid thee Fair Thee Well.

Lord Eckerich still seeks a Deputy, and asks that you write to the Barony or himself if you are interested.
